Property Overview

Formerly a 16th century convent, this enchanting villa is bursting with character and has been renovated with every comfort and enjoyment in mind. Step into the cool stone entrance hall and you will instantly note the attention to detail. There are two distinctive reception rooms, decorated with a curated selection of original furniture, paired with custom creations from local artisans and designer touches. The kitchen is fully stocked with high spec appliances, and the dining room is the perfect place for breakfast, with views of the rolling green olive groves out of the window.

Outside, there are plenty of spots to relax in the sun and the shade, and there is no better way to start the day than plunging into the sparkling pool. There is also an indoor hydro massage pool to relax and unwind in after a day's activities. At sunset, gather everyone for an aperitivo under the pergola, whether it's a negroni or a bottle of red from neighbouring Montepulciano, and fire up the barbecue for an al fresco dinner. There is a vegetable garden you are welcome to pick from. If you don't fancy cooking, a private chef can be arranged to whip up Italian delicacies. The villa is on the outskirts of Sarteano, a tiny town with picturesque stone streets, a Mediaeval castle, and some excellent Tuscan restaurants.

Sarteano is a small, charming town located in the heart of the Tuscan hills. Surrounded by vineyards and olive groves, the location offers a glimpse into rural Italian life. The historical centre is filled with picturesque narrow streets, beautiful churches and Renaissance palaces. One of the town's main attractions is the impressive fortress, which dates back to the 10th century and provides panoramic views of the surrounding countryside. Sarteano is also known for its delicious cuisine and world-class wines. The restaurants and trattorias serve up traditional Tuscan fare made from locally sourced ingredients, and visitors can enjoy wine tastings and tours at the many nearby vineyards. It also makes an ideal base for exploring the surrounding region, including the spa town of San Casciano dei Bagni and the hilltop town of Montepulciano.

Area Overview

Located in central Italy, Tuscany is ripe with scenic beauty, and claims an unrivaled artistic legacy; its capital city, Florence, is considered to be the birthplace of the Italian Renaissance and is home to some of the world's most recognizable art, including Michelangelo's statue of "David" and Botticelli's "Birth of Venus" painting. Tuscany's rich history stretches from the Roman Empire to the Medici dynasty and Napoleon's reign, boasting churches, museums, and galleries filled with centuries-old paintings and sculptures.

Tuscany is particularly known for its neoclassical architecture, and picturesque hilltop towns peppering the countryside. Its diverse natural landscape encompasses the rugged Apennine Mountains, the island of Elba's beaches, and Chianti's sprawling olive groves and vineyards. With over 120 protected nature reserves, natural hot springs, beaches, mountain ranges, and forests, Tuscany offers a variety of prime outdoor experiences, including driving tours, biking, hiking, and boating.
