About Boutique Travel Advisors

<https://travelbta.com/>

At Boutique Travel Advisors, we believe luxury travel goes beyond welcome chocolates on pillows & first-class seats. Luxury travel can be subjective. To us, the definition of luxury travel embodies having the privilege to explore & experience the infinitely possible wonderments the world has to offer when we decide to mindfully venture outside of our comfort zone in our home environment.

From booking bespoke safaris in South Africa, serenely scenic river cruises through France's waterways, to private wine (+ pasta) tastings on the Amalfi Coast... BTA strives to curate each personalized itinerary with credible expertise, dedicated service & the whole-hearted intention for each traveler to exceed their travel goals and expectations while on the adventure of a lifetime.

BTA is proudly a women-owned & run company. Co-owners and luxury travel curators, Janet Semenova and Angie Rice, use a thorough 5-step process to seamlessly design & tailor YOUR travel experience: explore, imagine, build, journey, reflect.

Your BTA travel itinerary is more than a document of scheduled flights, tours, and dinner reservations. It is the motherboard, the holy grail, the backbone of a transformational journey that turns your individual, subjective experiences into heart-warming, thought-provoking, jaw-dropping, life-changing memories that are worthy of being cherished for a lifetime.

Our purpose is to make your travel dreams come true... We are here to make your every step along the way uncomplicated, stress-free, and wildly exciting. All we ask is, where will your journey take you?

Travel Restrictions for US Travelers to Italy per Sherpa as of August 23, 2021:

Travel is allowed with restrictions

Description Travelers from United States (see 79 additional countries) who do not have a travel history in (see 3 additional countries) in the past 14 days before travel are allowed to enter Italy. Please check the documentation, quarantine and/or testing requirements before traveling.

Mandatory COVID-19 test

Description Unvaccinated travelers arriving from United States who do not have a travel history in other countries in the past 14 days before travel to Italy are required to present a negative COVID-19 test result from a rapid molecular or antigen swab test. The test must be taken a maximum of 72 hours before arrival. Different rules apply to passengers traveling on COVID-tested flights. Check the source for more details. The EU digital COVID certificate or Green Certificate is also accepted as a valid document for entry.

Quarantine may be required

Description Travelers arriving directly from United States are not required to quarantine on arrival in Italy. Travelers who have a travel history in any other country not included in the list above are subject to a mandatory 5 or 10-days quarantine. Please check the source for more details.

Important: if passengers are travelling to Italy after a stay/transit in a different country in the 14 days prior, different entry conditions may apply. Please review the official questionnaire provided by the Italian Government where you can list the countries visited in the 14 days prior to entry and have access to up-to-date information: https://infocovid.viaggiaresicuri.it/index\_en.html.

Masks are mandatory in public

Description Travelers must wear masks in enclosed public places.

EU Digital Covid Certificate

EU Digital Passenger Locator Form each passenger is requested to complete it through this link prior to departure.

- We recommend printing the completed form or to have the digital version in pdf format and the QR code (sent to your email address) available, which you must exhibit to the airline upon boarding your flight.
- Self-declaration Form: Guests will have to complete this form (found in the Documents tab of your travel app) with their details (one form for each passenger) and exhibit it upon request. Please fill out this form and keep it handy.

CDC Covid-19 Travel Updates

For more CDC Covid-19 information, Click Here

Travel Recommendations for Fully Vaccinated Travelers

If you are fully vaccinated with an FDA-authorized vaccine or a vaccine authorized by emergency use by the World Health Organization:

- You do NOT have to get tested before leaving the United States, unless your destination requires it.
- You do NOT have to self-quarantine after you arrive in the United States.

During travel:

- Wear a mask over your nose and mouth when in public. Masks are required on planes, buses, trains, and other forms of public transportation traveling into, within, or out of the United States and in U.S. transportation hubs such as airports and stations.
- Avoid crowds and stay at least 6 feet/2 meters (about 2 arm lengths) from anyone who is not traveling with you.
- Wash your hands often or use hand sanitizer (with at least 60% alcohol).

Before you travel to the United States by air

All air passengers coming to the United States, including U.S. citizens and fully vaccinated people, are required to have a negative COVID-19 test result no more than 3 days before travel or documentation of recovery from COVID-19 in the past 3 months before they board a flight to the United States.

After Travel

- You should get tested with a viral test 3-5 days after travel
- Self-monitor for COVID-19 symptoms; isolate and get tested if you develop symptoms.
- Follow all state and local recommendations or requirements.

Do NOT travel if you were exposed to COVID-19, you are sick, you test positive for COVID-19, or you are waiting for results of a COVID-19 test. Learn when it is safe for you to travel. Don't travel with someone who is sick.

Travel Recommendations for Unvaccinated Travelers

If you are not fully vaccinated and must travel, take the following steps:

Before travel:

- Get tested with a viral test 1-3 days before your trip.

During travel:

- Wear a mask over your nose and mouth when in public settings. Masks are required on planes, buses, trains, and other forms of public transportation traveling into, within, or out of the United States and in U.S. transportation hubs such as airports and stations.
- Avoid crowds and stay at least 6 feet/2 meters (about 2 arm lengths) from anyone who did not travel with you. It's important to do this everywhere—both indoors and outdoors.
- Wash your hands often or use hand sanitizer (with at least 60% alcohol).

Before you travel to the United States by air

All air passengers coming to the United States, including U.S. citizens and fully vaccinated people, are required to have a negative COVID-19 test result no more than 3 days before travel or documentation of recovery from COVID-19 in the past 3 months before they board a flight to the United States.

After you travel:

- Get tested with a viral test 3-5 days after travel AND stay home and self-quarantine for a full 7 days after travel.
- Even if you test negative, stay home and self-quarantine for the full 7 days.
- If your test is positive, isolate yourself to protect others from getting infected.
- If you don't get tested, stay home and self-quarantine for 10 days after travel.
- Avoid being around people who are at increased risk for severe illness for 14 days, whether you get tested or not.
- Self-monitor for COVID-19 symptoms; isolate and get tested if you develop symptoms.
- Follow all state and local recommendations or requirements.

Do NOT travel if you were exposed to COVID-19, you are sick, you test positive for COVID-19, or you are waiting for results of a COVID-19 test. Learn when it is safe for you to travel. Don't travel with someone who is sick.

All the travelers who are eligible to enter the Greek territories will be required to fill up and submit the online Passenger Locator Form (PLF) prior to arrival in Greece at least 48 hours before entering the country, regardless of their purpose of travel. If, in any case, a traveler fails to complete the PLF form before the travel, the person may face overnight delays in connecting flights to Greece.

Click HERE to register and submit the online Passenger Locator Form (PLF)

**NOTE*** Only one PLF per household is required.

The PLF can also be found on the Visit Greece app and at travel.gov.gr. It is strongly recommended that all visitors download the Visit Greece app (GDPR compliant) for free, prior their arrival in Greece.

Tipping Recommendations Italy

TIPPING INFORMATION

Gratuities in Italy, while extremely welcome and appreciated, are not as much 'expected' as they are in other countries and are totally optional.

If you are happy with the service you have enjoyed and would like to show your gratitude to the people who made it a very special experience for you here below you can find the amounts we recommend for Tour Guides, Drivers and other special services:

Tour Guide Half Day Euro 20.00

Tour Guide Full Day Euro 40.00

Transfer (Driver) Euro 15.00

Driver Half Day Euro 20.00

Driver Full Day Euro 40.00

Housekeeping staff 2 Euro/day

Hotel Staff, such as porters, should be tipped about 50 cents per bag for taking your bags to/from your room.

The above amounts are to be considered per service and not per person. Fiscal laws in Italy are extremely tough on this matter and this is the reason why these amounts cannot be included in the service costs and have to be paid in cash directly to the suppliers.

If you would like to 'tip like a local' at bars and restaurants then we suggest just leaving the change ie if your meal costs Euro 56 then just leave Euro 4; if the meal costs Euro 92 then just leave the Euro 8 change.

Tipping Recommendations Greece

Tipping in Greece may be expected in most places, but it is by no means an obligation. There is no set standard for how much to leave when service exceeds expectations, but there are certain times to tip. For instance, some restaurants may round up the bill to include gratuity, so it is wise to look for this inclusion before tipping. It is also common for servers not to receive tips included on a credit card, so try to leave cash whenever possible.

Café Server: If there is a tip jar by the cash register, it's a nice gesture to leave a couple of coins. For exceptional table service, round up to the nearest €1.

Restaurant Server: A tip is typically expected, especially for stellar service, but some restaurants round up the bill to include gratuity. Check the bill first for these inclusions before deciding to tip. If there is no added tip, leave 5 to 10 percent, and a few coins on the table for the busser. Some restaurants may refuse gratuity for service, so be certain to ask before tipping. There may be a "cover charge" on the bill, which covers the cost of bread and non-bottled water, but it doesn't include gratuity.

Bartender: It's not necessary to tip a bartender, as most do not expect it, but it is considerate to round to the nearest €1 for great service.

Tour Guides: It is customary to tip tour guides. Tip €2 to €5 per person, per day for a group tour, and €20 per person, per day for a private tour.

Taxis: A good rule of thumb is to round up to the nearest euro, or give 5 to 10 percent of the final fare for exceptional service.

Airport Shuttle Driver: It is not necessary to tip your driver, but feel free to give €1 per bag if they help with your luggage.

Doorman: If a doorman assists with luggage or hailed transportation, a simple thank you is appreciated, but feel free to offer €1 for exceptional service.

Bellhop: Feel free to tip €1 to €2 per bag, depending on size, but no more than €5 total.

Housecleaning: Leave €1 per night for a spotless stay.

Concierge: If the concierge goes above and beyond with helping you book reservations, giving you directions, and/or providing insider recommendations, it's considerate to tip €5 to €10.

Stylist: It's considerate, but not expected, to tip 10 percent of the final bill if you're satisfied with your new look.

Spa Service Provider: A tip isn't expected, but you can leave up to 10 percent for anything that goes above and beyond your expectations. Simply ask for an envelope for the tip at the front desk.

Room Description

DELUXE ROOMS | HOTEL D'INGHILTERRA

In these spacious rooms (the largest of the double rooms), which are enriched with stunning artworks and high-quality furniture, the watchwords are relaxation, comfort and elegance.

Rome is a city of a thousand faces: the precious purple colour of the noble residences, for example, provides a stark contrast to the pale whiteness of the ancient ruins of the Empire. That same chromatic effect is recalled in our charming Deluxe Double rooms, where the white walls form a simple, pared-down backdrop to the entrancing works of modern art and the precious antiques.

The effect is surprising and the memory of your time here is sure to stay with you forever.

Le Sirenuse is a seasonal property, welcoming guests from April 6, 2019 to October 28, 2019. Le Sirenuse hotel, situated in the stunning Bay of Positano, opened to the public 1951 and became one of the most glamorous hotels on the Amalfi Coast. The hotel has fifty-eight rooms, suites and junior suites and has all the comforts of a five star luxury hotel without having lost the atmosphere of a family home. It has won numerous awards and is internationally renowned for the quality of its services.

The rooms are contemporary but reminiscent of a glamorous bygone era a mix of modern and antique furniture and vaulted ceilings set against colorful handmade vietri floor tiles. Rooms with terraces and balconies overlook the blue sea and at night the gentle sounds of the lapping waves can be heard. The bathrooms are sophisticatedly simple using marble with Jacuzzi baths and separate showers and the hotels signature Eau d'Italie body care products. Modern luxuries such as i-Pod stations and pre loaded sounds are available in every room as are WI FI, flat screen TV's and DVD players.

Meeting Point

Le Sirenuse

There is hardly any other stretch of coastline that is so beloved by the whole world! La Costiera Amalfitana has inspired creative minds from landscape painter JMW Turner to Norwegian composer Edvard Grieg and allured pleasure seekers from Jackie Kennedy to Poppy Delevingne. Leave the driving to your expert guide, who is proud to call this area his home, and follow in their fancy footsteps! After leaving Naples and skirting the edge of Vesuvius, we arrive on the beguiling peninsula of Sorrento, which stretches out into the Gulf of Naples as if trying to kiss the Isle of Capri. Known as the Land of Colors, Sorrento will thrill you with its artisans and limoncello, its legendary hospitality and cultural highlights, like the Correale di Terranova museum. South of Sorrento we continue along the Amalfi Drive a feat of engineering with improbable roads and tunnels linking the two other seaside villages we'll visit today. Positano, known as the "vertical village", climbs the cliffs beside the azure Tyrrhenian Sea and contains a warren of uneven stairs, quaint shops and inviting bars and restaurants with some of the best people-watching in Italy. And Ravello, perched on a rocky spur between two valleys, is not as well-known as other Amalfi destinations, although it is probably the most elegant: revel in its never-ending views, marvel at its ancient cathedral and noble palaces, and indulge in its artisanal ceramics, luxe linens and delectable delicacies before heading back to your hotel.

ANOTHER WORLD

The main road through Positano that leads to the Spiaggia Grande is Via dei Mulini: you'll find us at number 23. A charming nineteenth-century residence, Palazzo Murat is protected by a shaded garden where Mediterranean scents of citrus will distract you from everything and everyone. An oasis in the very center of Positano.

We like to think of our hotel as a home from home and you will be regarded as a family friend. That's why there's nothing we care about more than transforming every single day of your holiday into its own special story, to be kept as a precious memory.

Day 7

Day Trip to Capri +39-335-6693236

10:20 AM

Start Time

Meeting Point

Port of Capri

Private Capri car and English-speaking driver guide will meet you at the Port of Capri arriving on hydrofoil at 11:05 AM (leaving at 10:25 AM, tickets paid on the spot) for your tour of the beautiful Capri island.

You will discover the beauty of this magical destination with its imperial villas, medieval churches, elegant 19th-century residences, magnificent coastal walks, flower-strewn mountain slopes and, of course, the shimmering blue Mediterranean sea. You will visit Villa Jovis, built in the First-century AD as a fortress. Dominating the promontory that extends from Grotta Bianca point to Caterola point. Then you will visit Mount Solaro the highest place on the Island; you can either walk there or take the chairlift to reach the top quite quickly while you enjoy a splendid view of Anacapri and the Gulf of Naples.

Once you arrive on top you will see a complex of belvederes. The way back on foot is one of the most beautiful walks on the island; the quite smooth route allows also a visit to Cetrella, where you can admire the lonely church of S. Maria. You can also visit the Grotta Azzurra, known since the Roman times, where there is an almost surreal view in the inside, the transparency and the blue of the water give the impression of navigating through a clear sky, and the boats seem to float on a fantastic universe.

Since the opening is very narrow, to get into it you need to take one of the small rowing boats moored outside the cave; Although the natural beauty of the island far outshines that of even the most glamorous of its visitors, no trip to Capri can be considered complete without having first attended the people parade in the legendary Piazzetta. It is here, in this tiny square bordered by chic pavement cafes, that the world's most beautiful people come to be seen, swathed in the designer clothes and jewelry purchased moments earlier in the exclusive boutiques lining the streets of the historic center.

Athens Introduction

Sights in ancient Greece, and especially Athens, take on a larger importance than in most other places in the world. They are histories of democracy, Western civilization and philosophy firsthand. You can't help but walk around the Parthenon and the rest of the Acropolis and dream about the great ones who have come before you and whose footsteps you're in.

Athens is a must-see on any European tour. The ancient and modern merge in this city in ways that are fascinating and sometimes overwhelming. Pollution wreathes the golden stones of the Acropolis and obscures views of the Saronic Gulf. Cars bleat and belch among ranks of concrete high-rises. But then you turn down a cobbled lane and discover vine-swathed tavernas, tortoises trundling through ancient ruins and bazaars teeming with dusty treasures. Or perhaps you will encounter a sleek cafe, art gallery or an outdoor cinema that serves ouzo under the stars. Greece's capital has been reinventing itself, and the results could not be more charming.

Sights—The Acropolis; the ancient Agora (marketplace); the Temple of Olympian Zeus; the changing of the evzone guards outside Parliament in Syntagma Square; Lykavittos Hill; a day trip to Cape Sounion for the sunset; a one-day cruise around the Saronic Islands.

Museums—The Acropolis Museum; the Museum of the Ancient Agora of Athens; the Benaki Museum; the Goulandris Museum of Cycladic and Ancient Greek Art; the National Archaeological Museum.

Memorable Meals—The spectacular view of the Acropolis and the creative cuisine at Orizontes Lykavittou; the mind-boggling variety of traditional Greek dishes served at Eleas Gi; modern Greek taverna fare in trendy Gazi; rooftop dining in Thissio; award-winning seafood specialties at Varoulko.

Walks—Through the Plaka (Old Athens) and the flea market in the Monastiraki area; along the traffic-free "archaeological promenade" Apostolou Pavlou in Thissio.

Tipping Recommendations Greece

Tipping in Greece may be expected in most places, but it is by no means an obligation. There is no set standard for how much to leave when service exceeds expectations, but there are certain times to tip. For instance, some restaurants may round up the bill to include gratuity, so it is wise to look for this inclusion before tipping. It is also common for servers not to receive tips included on a credit card, so try to leave cash whenever possible.

Café Server: If there is a tip jar by the cash register, it's a nice gesture to leave a couple of coins. For exceptional table service, round up to the nearest €1.

Restaurant Server: A tip is typically expected, especially for stellar service, but some restaurants round up the bill to include gratuity. Check the bill first for these inclusions before deciding to tip. If there is no added tip, leave 5 to 10 percent, and a few coins on the table for the busser. Some restaurants may refuse gratuity for service, so be certain to ask before tipping. There may be a "cover charge" on the bill, which covers the cost of bread and non-bottled water, but it doesn't include gratuity.

Bartender: It's not necessary to tip a bartender, as most do not expect it, but it is considerate to round to the nearest €1 for great service.

Tour Guides: It is customary to tip tour guides. Tip €2 to €5 per person, per day for a group tour, and €20 per person, per day for a private tour.

Taxis: A good rule of thumb is to round up to the nearest euro, or give 5 to 10 percent of the final fare for exceptional service

Airport Shuttle Driver: It is not necessary to tip your driver, but feel free to give €1 per bag if they help with your luggage.

Doorman: If a doorman assists with luggage or hailing transportation, a simple thank you is appreciated, but feel free to offer €1 for exceptional service.

Bellhop: Feel free to tip €1 to €2 per bag, depending on size, but no more than €5 total.

Houscleaning: Leave €1 per night for a spotless stay.

Concierge: If the concierge goes above and beyond with helping you book reservations, giving you directions, and/or providing insider recommendations, it's considerate to tip €5 to €10.

Stylist: It's considerate, but not expected, to tip 10 percent of the final bill if you're satisfied with your new look.

Spa Service Provider: A tip isn't expected, but you can leave up to 10 percent for anything that goes above and beyond your expectations. Simply ask for an envelope for the tip at the front desk.

Santorini, the southernmost of the Greek Cyclades, has to be one of the world's most dramatically beautiful islands. Its unique topography results from a massive volcanic eruption some 3,600 years ago, which blew the middle out of the island to create a caldera, a volcanic crater filled with deep blue water from the Mediterranean Sea.

The most memorable way to approach the island is by sea. As you sail into the caldera, red-and-black sheer cliffs rise directly from the water, their tops dusted by what at first looks like a sprinkling of snow. Then, as you get closer, the snow takes the shape of Cycladic buildings hanging precariously off the hillsides. Finally, zigzagging lines across the rock face become recognizable as roads that lead up from the sea to whitewashed houses perching on the cliffs.

These are the settlements of Fira and Oia, known for their quaint cobbled alleys, white cubic buildings, chic boutique hotels with infinity pools, gourmet restaurants, and unforgettable sunsets. All these things add up to make Santorini an incredibly romantic holiday retreat for couples of all ages, as well as a wonderfully glamorous wedding and honeymoon destination.

It's not surprising that Santorini's spectacular setting has made it one of the most-visited islands in Greece—in peak season, it receives some 60,000 visitors each day and up to five cruise ships every morning. It's also much loved by celebrities—visitors have included Beyoncé, Brad Pitt, and Angelina Jolie.

Santorini main highlights are:

- The towns of Oia and Thira - don't need a tour can walk these villages, stop at shops, eat local food, etc.
- Akrotiri Archaeological ruins - this is like a tiny little Pompeii and is located about 7 miles from the main port town of Thira.
- Red beach - nearby to Akrotiri
- Ammoudi Bay - this is the bay that comes down from the town of Oia (down about 200 steps), popular for lunch, swimming, and cliff diving
- Sailing and boat trips are extremely popular.
- Hike/walk from Thira to Oia- this is so fun, but you want to leave early to do it. It's a 6-mile walk with amazing views. Do the hike first thing, have lunch in Thira, then take a cab back.

Mykonos Introduction

INTRODUCTION

Set like gems in the sparkling blue Aegean Sea, each of the Cyclades islands has its own character. For Mykonos, the local culture is a mix of the sacred and the profane. This island is the gateway to the neighboring unoccupied island of Delos, the sacred center of the Cyclades.

With almost a million visitors a year, this 30-sq-mi/80-sq-km island gets busy in high season. However, for those who don't like crowds, spring and fall are the best times to visit. If your notion of a Greek island is old ladies in black and fishermen mending their nets by the harbor, Mykonos will be an eye-opener. In fact, it will probably surprise even the experienced traveler.

Mykonos has more than 400 churches and chapels and several nude beaches and its share of gay striptease and drag shows. Fashion models strut their stuff, and the nightlife can be as wild as anywhere in the world. Of course, prices are high, too, but the food and shopping are better than almost anywhere else in Greece. Mykonos Town, the capital, is the center of activity on the island.

Don't let its reputation for bacchic behavior discourage you from visiting. Instead, go during the daytime if you want to experience a more traditional side of town. Take time to stroll its warrenlike streets, many of which are no wider than a sidewalk. On each side are smooth, whitewashed cubes whose doors and windows are splashed with bright colors: bougainvilleas, clematis, and geraniums cascade from the wooden balconies.

Be sure to peek inside a few of the red-domed chapels scattered around the island. Most are tiny, peaceful places. Several small museums contain some interesting artifacts. Outside the capital, the beaches are superb, provided you don't mind sharing them with a few thousand other people. Inland are few trees and lots of rocks, so although it's not the most attractive islands, it does have character.

MUST SEE OR DO

Sights—

The island's landmark windmills, especially to watch the sunset;

Little Venice at night (it may not be to everyone's tastes, but it's what Mykonos is about);

Panayia Paraportiani, for a glimpse of the sacred amongst the profane;

Mykonos Town's winding back streets; a short boat ride to the ancient archaeological site on nearby uninhabited Delos island.

Museums—

The Archaeological Museum of Delos; Delos artifacts at the Archaeological Museum of Mykonos; traditional arts and crafts at the Folklore Museum of Mykonos.

Memorable Meals—Tarte Tatin at La Maison de Catherine, tiradito and new-style sashimi at Matsuhisa; a contemporary take on Greek tavern fare at Bakalo; organic Greek dishes such as water buffalo meatballs at Nice n Easy on Kalo Livadi beach; gourmet seafood by Greek celebrity chef Lefteris Lazarou at White Star in Mykonos Town.

Late Night—The spectacular cliff-top setting and pool overlooking the sea at Cavo Paradiso; club-hopping through Mykonos Town's alleys and Little Venice; after-hours beach parties Paradise or Super Paradise beaches; enjoying the packed party crowd at the island's beach club venues when world-famous DJs spin.

Branco Mykonos Restaurant, located at the seashore of Platis Gialos is an impeccable choice for lunch and dinner in Mykonos.

The fine culinary creations of our Chef, reinventing the traditional Greek Cuisine, offer a unique gastronomic journey. Branco Mykonos Restaurant focuses on the exceptional quality of the fresh local ingredients and re-introduces Greek recipes, using old memories of taste to create new palate experiences.

The professional, yet friendly service, the elegant design and the relaxing music, create a magnificent atmosphere by the sea of the Aegean. Choose our Restaurant to discover the taste of Branco Mykonos.

Outline

Enjoy the world of the Greek kitchen in this special cooking lesson on Mykonos. We start by going to the local market at the harbor front where we meet the farmers of Mykonos offering their sun ripened vegetables full of flavor. We purchase our vegetables and make our way to the local restaurant where the lesson starts. We get a first introduction of the Greek kitchen and start preparing the food under the guidance of an experienced cook. The lesson is hands-on but you can get as involved as you like. We make Tzatziki, eggplant salad, Greek salad, saganaki cheese, and Moussaka, and afterwards sit down to eat our meal which is accompanied by local wines. During the meal we also speak about the culture of the Greek kitchen and the wines. We end our meal with a dessert and a Greek coffee.

Pickup and Drop Off Information: At 09:00hrs, you will be met by your English-speaking guide at the lobby of Branco Hotel for your transfer where the cooking class takes place to commence your tour. Upon completion of the tour you will be transferred back to the hotel.
