INTERNAL NOTES

- Please find alternative options for meeting space based on 14 people. It could be a restaurant that accommodates corporate meetings. Or, a hotel. Or, possibly a venue that opens up to the public for meeting space (pop-up) similar to Regus but a little more available for one-time use. For space information, let's add a 5% service fee to the amount.
- Research using locally vetted websites and Iris so that we can give them a multitude of dinner options. Then, I would also ask Iris for a list of good options for take out or delivery in case they want to eat in. Make sure you ask Iris to include a web address and tell her the address of the apartments so everything is within 15 minutes.
- Ask Iris for the top 10 activities for a business function or team-building experience in Savannah and ask for the website address and location.
- Also ask Iris what makes each suggested restaurant a good choice. Please also confirm that they can accommodate up to 14. Inquire about inside or outside availability and private room.
- Then, ask Iris to give you a list of entertainment venues and sports for their second and third night.
- Add items and also any links to good solid resources from the Office of Tourism, etc. and Iris will help you find these websites. Also check chamber of commerce.
- ITEMS needed: airfare from all travelers, confirmed headcount, add up based on names on reservations, Angie to research initial emails between Jackie and Jim to add such details. Assuming clients are Uber no info is needed for transfers.
- Please prepare a letter for the client, and ask Jackie to send it with you copied on it.
- Provide driving directions and walking directions for three restaurants. Also, add addresses, website and menus to Axus.
- BTA will book and manage reservations and activities for a fee of $75 per person. Otherwise, the client can make reservations and provide us with such information to be added to their itinerary.
- We need to include in the email to Jim the link Axus plus we need to ask him to verify the official headcount and names that are in this headcount. We have past members email address but ask him to provide emails addresses for anyone who new or may have a new email address.
- Jim is in Italy but ask him to set up a call to discuss activities of interest, options for meeting space and whether you should begin to book dinner reservations (knowing we can always cancel).

Thank you!
