General information on restrictions and recommendations in France and action taken has been centralized on a platform at the following address:

- <https://www.gouvernement.fr/en/coronavirus-covid-19>.
- During your stay in France, download and activate the #TousAntiCovid application.

Last updated: 5 July 2021

Can I enter France?

The conditions for entering France will depend on your country of departure and your vaccination status.

Specific rules apply to road hauliers (in French and English).

A list of countries of departure has been drawn up on the basis of the health indicators. The lists of countries can be altered based on changes in the epidemic situation.

Arrivals from "green" countries

Countries/territories on the "green" list: countries in the European space (European Union, Andorra, the Holy See, Iceland, Liechtenstein, Monaco, Norway, San Marino and Switzerland), and Albania, Australia, Bosnia, Canada, Hong Kong, Israel, Japan, Kosovo, Lebanon, Montenegro, New Zealand, North Macedonia, Saudi Arabia, Serbia, Singapore, South Korea, Taiwan, the United States and Vanuatu.

If you are vaccinated:

- you are not subject to any health measures.

If you are not vaccinated:

- upon boarding, each traveller aged 11 years or older must present a negative PCR or antigenic test taken less than 72 hours before the flight.

This will not apply to:

- trips by residents of cross-border areas (border within a 30 km radius of your residence, and for a duration of less than 24 hours).
- work-related trips, the urgent or frequent nature of which makes them incompatible with these tests;
- trips by hauliers carrying out their work.

To avail of the exemptions above, you must have a document proving the reasons for your trip.

Travel documents

Depending on your circumstances, you must complete and carry some of the following documents in order to board:

- Proof of vaccination. It will only be valid if it proves that you are fully vaccinated, i.e.:
  - Two weeks after the second shot for two-shot vaccines (Pfizer, Moderna, AstraZeneca);
  - Four weeks after the shot for one-shot vaccines (Johnson & Johnson);
  - Two weeks after the shot for vaccines administered to people who have already had COVID-19 (only one dose is necessary).
  - Only vaccines authorized by the European Medicines Agency (EMA) will be accepted, i.e. Pfizer (Comirnaty), Moderna, AstraZeneca (Vaxzevria) and Johnson & Johnson (Janssen).
- For all travelers: a sworn declaration, which you can download from the Interior Ministry's website stating that... (FOUND IN THE DOCUMENTS TAB OF YOUR APP)

- you have no symptoms of COVID-19 infection;
- to your knowledge, you have not been in contact with a confirmed case of COVID-19 in the 14 days prior to your journey;
- (if you are aged 11 years or older) you agree to submit to a virological RT-PCR test for SARS-CoV-2 upon arrival in France;
- (where applicable) you pledge to self-isolate for seven days;
- (for non-vaccinated travelers arriving from a “red” country) you are aware that you will have to quarantine for 10 days upon arrival in France.
- (For travelers arriving from “red” countries, or if they are not vaccinated, “orange” countries), a certificate of international travel for Metropolitan France, which you can download from the Interior Ministry’s website. You must present this certificate to travel companies before using your travel ticket, as well as to border control authorities (for travel by air, sea and land, including by rail);
- (for travelers required to self-isolate or quarantine) proof of the location of self-isolation, and where appropriate, access details for inspectors to carry out checks.

If you fail to produce these documents, you will be denied boarding.

- EU Digital Passenger Locator Form (DPLF): each passenger is requested to complete it through this link prior to departure.
- We recommend printing the completed form or to have the digital version in pdf format and the QR code (sent to your email address) available, which you must exhibit to the airline upon boarding your flight.
- Self-declaration Form: Guests will have to complete this form (found in the Documents tab of your travel app) with their details (one form for each passenger) and exhibit it upon request. Please fill out this form and keep it handy.

From the time of writing until July 30, 2021 please note that for clients traveling from the US or Canada to Italy it is possible to avoid quarantine by presenting one of the following: certificate of vaccination (guests must be fully vaccinated with a vaccine recognized by EMA and with the second shot administered at least 14 days prior to departure), a negative antigenic or molecular swab taken within 48 hours of arrival in Italy, or a certificate of recovery from COVID.

Important: if passengers are travelling to Italy after a stay/transit in a different country in the 14 days prior, different entry conditions may apply. Please review the official questionnaire provided by the Italian Government where you can list the countries visited in the 14 days prior to entry and have access to up-to-date information: https://infocovid.viaggiaresicuri.it/index\_en.html.

Activities - Sightseeing at Palace of Versailles, Gardens of Versailles, Claude Monet's Home and Gardens, and Fondation Monet in Giverny

Highlights

- Visit both of Claude Monet's gardens at Giverny and the palace at Versailles
- Free time to visit the Gardens of Versailles designed by André Le Nôtre
- Explore Monet's studio and house, as well as the Impressionists Museum in Giverny

Description - Visit Claude Monet's beautiful gardens at Giverny, then the impressive castle at Versailles castle, royal apartments, the Hall of Mirrors, and the Queen's apartments. Two unmissable Paris sights in one day: Giverny and the Palace of Versailles.

Giverny, France, is a timelessly beautiful village and an iconic place that was home to Claude Monet, the Impressionist painter. Visit the famous gardens that inspired the artist, as well as his house and studio. Discover the magnificent Palace of Versailles, the residence of Kings Louis XIV, Louis XV and Louis XVI of France and their courts from 1682 to the French Revolution in 1789. As you listen to your guide, admire the palace's architecture and its beautiful rooms, such as the famous Hall of Mirrors. Enjoy free time in its stunning French-style gardens.

Itinerary

In the morning immerse yourself in the world of Claude Monet, famous for his many paintings of different views of his garden. The artist Claude Monet lived in Giverny for more than 40 years, from 1883 until his death. Your driver guide will take you to the gardens. Spend time wandering around the Clos Normand Flower Garden, home to a number of plants of Eastern origins, the multicolored flower beds, and the stunning water garden, so famous for its water lilies and Japanese bridge.

Visit Claude Monet's house, where he lived and worked, at your own pace. Explore the reading room that leads into the larder and the artist's studio. As well as those of his private apartments, these rooms have been reconstructed with Monet's original furniture.

Visit the dining room, home to Monet's collection of Japanese prints (one of the largest in the world), as well as the blue-tiled Kitchen. At the end of your tour, take the opportunity to visit the Impressionists Museum and the lovely gift and book shop housed in what was once the Water Lilies studio.

In the afternoon, discover the Palace and Gardens of Versailles. Your guide will take you to the palace entrance. Visit the most beautiful rooms with a guided tour: these include the King's Apartments, with seven salons each decorated on the theme of a different god, and the Queen's Apartments.

Stroll along with the sparkling Hall of Mirrors, imagined by the architect Jules Hardouin-Mansart as a place for parading and being seen. Designed to dazzle the Sun King's visitors, this huge hall with marble and gilded bronze decoration was somewhere to stroll and meet.

Once your guide has told you about the different parts of the palace, spend time exploring the Gardens of Versailles while you admire their magnificent sculptures (marble statues, busts, and vases), fountains, and ponds.

Description

Get ready to find out why the Greeks always have food on their mind. First, get your taste buds dancing and taste the best local delicacies of Athens. Then, enjoy a real Greek eating adventure while strolling the beautiful streets of Athens with your private guide.

Get your appetite ready and join your private guide for the most delicious tastings of Athens. Try the best local bites in a 3-hour private food tour created just for you, your family, or a group of friends.

Kick off your food tour with a feast for all your senses at a typical Athenian in-and outdoor market. First, stroll past the fish market that's surrounded by the historic meat market. This is your chance to taste the best varieties of Greek olives. Next, check out the fruit & vegetable market across the street, and find the most colorful fruits you've ever seen! This market is a true sensory and gastronomic delight.

The next tasting is located inside a beautiful, spacious neo-classical building with high ceilings and tables around the food counter. Choose from a mouthwatering selection of the best traditional meats and cheeses. Your private guide will tell you all about its history, so feel free to ask any burning questions along the way.

Follow your nose and make your way to the most fragrant street in Athens. Then, walk into a true local spice store and hear why Athenians don't mind traveling to the city center to find that one unique spice. Nothing beats that special touch to a dish!

Next, you'll pass the church of Agioi Theodoroi. Admire its unexpected beauty, right in the middle of a normal shopping area. Make your way to the next stop, a true oasis bistro in busy Athens. Sip on a traditional Greek coffee or enjoy a glass of naturally-flavored Mastiqua sparkling water. Enjoy the beautiful old Parisian-style interior with an authentic Greek touch.

As you stroll the streets of Athens, do as the locals do and grab a typical Greek on-the-go snack called 'Koulouri Thessalonikis.' Then, as you finish munching on your treat, get ready for a typical Greek olive oil tasting. First, find out why olive oil is fundamental to any Greek dish. Then, be sure to leave room for your next stop, where you'll bite into the best souvlaki in town!

We've saved the best for last, so get your sweet tooth ready as your host will take you for some delicious 'Loukoumades' Greek doughnuts. We're sure you'll want to come back for more.

Embark From Athens (Piraeus)

Notes

Most people simply pass through Piraeus, Greece's largest port city, to board cruise ships or hydrofoils to the islands.

On its surface, Piraeus can seem congested and chaotic, and there is no denying that sections of its industrial waterfront are an eyesore. But there is another side to this fascinating place. It has its fair share of charming eateries and often overlooked attractions.

The pretty fishing harbor of Mikrolimano Bay is a good place for a cool evening outing or dining in a seafood restaurant. You can spend the evening in an open-air cafe or in one of the area's lively nightclubs.

Piraeus also has a few other attractions, including the Hellenic Maritime Museum and an archeological museum.

Piraeus may not have the cosmopolitan cachet and renown of Athens, but for those seeking a slice of genuine, informal Greek atmosphere, it is well worth exploring. And for ship aficionados, Piraeus is practically paradise.

Monemvasia

Notes

Monemvasia is located 99 mi/160 km south of Athens and is one of the most picturesque places in Greece. The old town is actually a fortress town, a perfectly preserved medieval settlement, albeit one inhabited by modern people. Vehicles are not allowed there and the atmosphere is magical, transferring visitors to another era. A bridge you can walk along connects the new town with the old one, a small islet linked to the mainland.

Visit the church of Elkomenos Christos and the Archaeological Collection housed at the 16th-century former mosque. The upper old town offers a splendid panoramic view but is now restricted because of archaeological excavations.

Within the last few decades, the medieval buildings were restored, GR-86 was built to connect to the mainland, and tourism had begun to flourish. It's known for its hidden Byzantine fortress town, bearing Venetian, Frankish, Ottoman, and, of course, Byzantine influence. Its nickname is "The Rock", and "the Gibraltar of the East". 8,000 years ago, in ancient Cape Minoa, Monemvasia was a port of call for travelers between Greece, the Cyclades, and Crete. It is believed that the rock was a Minoan trading post in its antiquity, and helped join the Mycenaean and Minoan cultures. Monemvasia was joined with the Peloponnese mainland until 375 AD when a massive earthquake compromised the region's geomorphology.

Historical towns such as Asopos, Vies, Epidaurus Limeira, and Plythra were either partly or completely submerged as a result of the earthquake. The earliest Laconian settlers were Greek refugees escaping the Arab and Visigoth invasions in 583 AD. From the 10th century AD on, the town became a core maritime and trade port. The town's geographic positioning made it a strategic stronghold for the Byzantine military operations - so much so that it ultimately became the last Byzantine stronghold to fall to Greece and the first liberated fortress in the Peloponnese for Greece which led to success during the ongoing fight against the Turks in 1821.

Over the centuries, there were many battles between the Venetians, Byzantines, Franks, Turks, as well as the Pope, as they realized the geopolitical importance of Monemvasia. Its recent resurgence in importance was born from its increase in tourist interest. Tourists visit the Monemvasia Fortress, as well as the Christos Elkomenos Church, and the archeological site of Epidavros Limeira. Climb to the church of Hagia Sophia to catch a glimpse of the most magnificent views of the town and the Myrtoan Sea.

Day 19

Amalfi

Notes

The charming seaside town of Amalfi is the heart of Italy's Amalfi coastline. Located at the mouth of a deep ravine and surrounded by dramatic cliffs, this impressive natural landscape creates an unforgettable backdrop to Amalfi's seaside setting. With narrow, winding streets and medieval architecture, Amalfi is a must-see while visiting the Amalfi Coast.

Amalfi's picturesque setting is what captivates travelers from around the world, but behind the pastel-colored houses and fishing boats bobbing in the harbor lies a fascinating history. In the Middle Ages, Amalfi was a wealthy and powerful sea republic with ships that sailed across the Mediterranean and traded as far as Byzantium. Relics from that illustrious past can be seen throughout Amalfi, including the sumptuous treasures in the Cathedral of Sant'Andrea Museum and the small Arsenale Museum dedicated to the city's history.

The charms of Amalfi today are no less alluring than its past. Rocky beaches and secluded swimming coves with shimmering turquoise water are perfect for relaxation, while boating and kayaking are equally popular recreation activities. The central Piazza Duomo and main shopping street are lined with shops selling colorful ceramics, the famous limoncello liqueur and Amalfi's traditional handmade paper.

The aroma of locally grown lemons and outstanding restaurants make a visit to Amalfi a treat for the taste buds as well. Dine overlooking the Marina Grande beach or find a tiny restaurant hidden away in a quiet piazza.

Amalfi's impressive landscape, natural beauty and intense flavors continue to enchant visitors today.

Disembark In Rome (Civitavecchia)

Notes

Rome seems to have its own gravitational pull, attracting not only millions of tourists each year, but also the most creative artists and thinkers of every era. All that surrounds a visitor in Rome—the stunning art and architecture, the terrible traffic, the grandeur of scale and the lively (almost hyper-animated) citizens—guarantees an unforgettable trip.

Known as "The Eternal City," Rome is a supreme palimpsest. The ruins of pagan temples have become the foundations of Christian churches, ancient theaters have been made into medieval family fortresses, and Corinthian columns support new walls. The ages are layered, one atop the other, but the flow of Roman life is ever forward, with a respect for its glorious past.

Rome wasn't built in a day, so don't expect to see it in one. The historic center alone could absorb a week: the Michelangelo-designed Campidoglio, the Pantheon, the Palatine Hill and the Roman Forum, as well as the nearby Colosseum and Baths of Caracalla. The basilicas take a little longer because they are spread throughout the city.

If it's Rome's views you're after, climb up into the dome of St. Peter's or admire the panorama from the top of the Spanish Steps (better yet, from the Pincio Gardens above it) at sunset. Or survey the Forum at night from the Capitoline. Bustling, beautiful Rome, sprawling among its seven hills, is fascinating for both its ancient and its modern wonders.

Of course, not everyone immediately loves Rome: Some dislike the city's untidiness and seeming disorganization. But give la citta eterna a chance to charm, or else risk missing something magnificent.

COVID Testing - IMPORTANT To Be Arranged At Hotel

This morning enjoy a visit to the Tomb of Saint Peter and the Necropolis under the Vatican Basilica...Special visits to the necropolis underneath the Basilica, where the tomb of St. Peter is located, are only possible following special permission granted from time to time by the 'Fabbrica di San Pietro'. Visits are organized according to the schedule set by the Excavations Office.(Tour duration: approximately 1,5 h)

IMPORTANT:

- For the respect due to the original tomb of the Apostle Peter, the clothing must be suitable to the holy place: for men only long TROUSERS, for women pants or skirts below the knee, covered shoulders for everyone.
- For the entire archaeological site and sacred area, it is forbidden to bring any bulky object (suitcases, backpacks, large bags, cameras...), even if it has passed the police check.
- The Excavations Office is reachable only by Bernini's colonnade (on the left facing the Basilica), entrance on Via Paolo VI, where one passes to the police checkpoint and then heads to the Swiss Guards.
- One must arrive in the office, at least 15 minutes before the time of the scheduled visit, for police control.
- Remember to bring a valid document for possible inspection by the Vatican authorities.
- The visitor who arrives late or does not respect the above notices will not be allowed to visit.

Travel Insurance Definition:

“Travel Insurance” means coverage for personal risks incidental to planned travel, including one or more of the following:

- Interruption or cancellation of a trip or event;
- Loss of baggage or personal effects;
- Damage to accommodations or rental vehicles;
- Sickness, accident, disability, or death occurring during travel.

What Your Travel Advisor May Do:

Employees of a Travel Retailer MAY transact Travel Insurance on our behalf and under our direction, including:

- 1 Offering/disseminating information on our behalf, including brochures, buyer guides, descriptions of coverage, and price;
- 2 Referring specific coverage/feature/benefit questions to us;
- 3 Disseminating/processing applications for coverage, coverage selection forms, or other similar forms;
- 4 Collecting premiums on our behalf; and
- 5 Receiving/recording information to share with us.

What Your Travel Advisor May Not Do:

The Travel Retailer’s employees:

- 1 Are NOT qualified or authorized to answer technical questions about the benefits, exclusions, or conditions of any of the insurance offered by the Travel Retailer; or
- 2 To evaluate the adequacy of a prospective insured’s existing insurance coverage.
