Boutique Travel Advisors (BTA) charges a fee of $100 to assist with booking up to three dinner reservations during your trip. Our team of experienced luxury travel advisors will leverage our extensive network and expertise to secure reservations at highly sought-after restaurants, ensuring you have a memorable dining experience.

This fee covers the time and effort required to research, communicate with the restaurants, and secure your desired reservations. We understand the importance of curated dining experiences and strive to provide exceptional service in this aspect of your trip.

Please note that for a seamless and well-planned travel experience, we kindly request that you select your preferred dates, times, and restaurants for any pre-booked activities or dining experiences at least 30 days prior to your travel dates.

No-Show or Late Cancellation Policy

When it comes to dinner reservations with a cancellation window, we have certain policies in place to maintain a positive relationship with our partner restaurants and to manage the logistics involved in securing reservations.

In the case of a no-show or cancellation after the cancellation date, BTA reserves the right to charge a cancellation fee of $100.

This fee is necessary to cover the costs incurred by the restaurant due to the reservation being held and not utilized.

Additionally, it helps us handle the process of restoring our relationship with the restaurant, as no-shows can negatively impact our standing and future reservations. Please be aware that additional cancellation fees may be charged by the restaurant itself, which will be communicated to you accordingly.

It is important to note that any changes made to dinner reservations after travel are the responsibility of the client. This includes modifications, cancellations, or requests for alternative arrangements. We recommend that you work with your hotel concierge to make any changes to restaurant reservations in the destination and for securing any new restaurant reservations.

We understand that unforeseen circumstances can arise, and we always strive to be flexible and understanding. However, it is crucial to communicate any changes or cancellations as soon as possible to minimize any potential inconvenience or financial implications.

If you would like our assistance in booking dinner reservations, please let us know and we will be happy to assist you. We believe that these carefully selected dining experiences will enhance your overall travel experience.

Self-Booking of Restaurant Reservations

If you prefer to book your own restaurant reservations, please share your confirmation details and we will add them to your itinerary. Thank you.
