About Norway

Norway is a magnificent holiday destination at any time of the year. From the deep, clear fjords to the cultural and historical museums of Oslo, there are all kinds of attractions, activities, natural wonders, and diversions for every kind of traveller with a good dose of cozy Nordic hospitality and hip Scandinavian design thrown in.

Culture-lovers can revel in the architecture and history of Oslo. From the Medieval castle and fortress to the original Viking ship museum, the Kon-Tiki Museum, Munch Museum, and the Folk Museum; the capital city has plenty to delight and enthral. Pockets of verdant parkland and open spaces help to give the city a sense of character.

In contrast, escape to the quieter town of Bergen where you can soak up the charms of the brightly-coloured wooden houses, funicular railway, and peaceful harbour. The train ride between towns offers some spectacular scenery.

The fjords, of course, are one of the most famous draws for visitors. Some of them have even been granted UNESCO World Heritage status. The sublime clear water, towering mountains, glaciers, and cascading waterfalls are a must-see experience and we offer a variety of ways to explore them, from luxury cruises to RIB adventures.

One of the most well-known of them all is Hardangerfjord (considered one of the prettiest in the country) and the 'Troll's Tongue' rock formation 900m above sea level.

The fjords are lined with quaint villages and Viking ruins. Those who enjoy hiking and pastoral scenes will be thrilled by the rolling fields or orchards, as well as the opportunities for local craft beer and cheese tastings particularly the Viking-style brewery and pub in Flam.

Ski resorts, glacier walks, ziplining, fishing, cycling, food tours, and RIB safaris are amongst the other attractions of this beautiful Scandinavian nation.

You can even ski in the summer season or walk on the glistening ice of an active glacier. Meanwhile, daredevils will love the opportunities to zipline amongst the mountains and cyclists can choose between the woods and mountains of Alesund or the urban cycle routes threading through Norway's attractive cities.

Meet your driver-guide Birte (Phone: +47 994 00 151) in the hotel lobby and take a private trip to Folgefonna Glacier. Folgefonna Glacier is the third largest glacier on the mainland of Norway and is located in Folgefonna National Park. Experience the glittering Folgefonna glaciers and admire the stunning Rosendal Alps and North Sea surrounding them. This guided coastal glacier hike will take you from Fonna Glacier Ski Resort to the glimmering glacier, crossing mostly flat ice. You'll also learn about the history of the glacier and the surrounding area. The 'blue ice glacier tour', as it is known, also offers you the opportunity to venture into crevasses for some climbing, if they wish to. Since this is a private tour the guide will adjust the walk to your abilities. For some it will be climbing and adrenaline, for some it will be a quiet walk into a different world.

Breakfast at hotel & check-out

11:00am Today you will meet your guide Birte (Phone: +47 994 00 151) in the hotel lobby and make your way to Bergen through the Hardangerfjord.

12:00pm In Eidfjord you will have 1 hour scheduled RIB cruise over the fjord (not advisable if you have problems with knee or back). The tour starts in Eidfjord Harbor after dressing up, and a short safety review. You will have stops underway, without leaving the boat, where the boat driver will tell you about what you see. You may want to have photo devices easily available. One stop will be in Hotel where goats come down to the boat, at another stop it is often seals to see in the sea or on land. There is a rich bird life in the Eidfjord of especially seabirds, but this also varies a bit with the seasons.

02:00pm At the village Øvre Eidfjord you can visit the Hardangervidda Nature Center an exhibition of the wonderful nature of the Hardangervidda plateau and its history. There you may also watch a beautiful film on 5 screens (super videography system) by a Norwegian-Italian director Iva Caprino a film about the magnificent sight in the Hardangervidda plateau. You will continue your way up the majestic waterfall Vøringfossen one of the most liked attraction in the whole Norway. You can also take a short side trip further up the Hardangervidda plateau and see the glacier Hardangerjøkulen.

You will end the day at Bergen Bors Hotel. Dinner (payable locally) & overnight in Bergen.

Day 11

Day of Leisure in Bergen

Image credits: Miguel Ángel Sanz on Unsplash

Breakfast at hotel

Today you will have time to explore Bergen on your own. Perhaps you would be interested in taking a walk to the Fløyen Train and take a ride (payable locally) up Mount Fløyen where you can take walks and hikes of all lengths and levels. Please note that this is a suggestion for a day at leisure and not booked or guided.

The Fløibanen funicular in Bergen is one of Norway's best-known and most visited attractions. The journey up to Fløyen (320 m above sea level) takes about 58 minutes. Mount Fløyen has many nice hiking opportunities and is a perfect starting point for a wonderful walk in the city mountains. There are many different routes with different length and difficulty. For example, only a short walk away from Fløibanen's top station, you will find the beautiful and idyllic lake Skomakerdiket.

Breakfast at hotel

10:00am Meet your guide Erlend (Phone: +47 474 68 776) in the hotel lobby for a Bergen City Walking Tour (approx. 2-3hrs).

Today you will have a Bergen City Walking Tour (approx. 2-3hrs). Nestled between glorious mountain terrain and sheltered from the North Sea by a stunning archipelago is Bergen, Norway's second largest city. Called the 'Gateway to the fjords' because of its proximity to Sognefjord and Hardanger fjord, Bergen's spectacular scenery encompasses a vibrant urban character mixed with natural charms. How many times have you seen a modern city tucked away into a rugged mountain? The city center today is divided into two parts: the old Hanseatic town along the wharf and the contemporary center stretching inland from the harbor. You can explore any side of the city to get a feel for its enchanting elements, like the historic cobblestone alleys with colorful, wooden facades, and Bryggen, a UNESCO World Heritage Site teeming with 12th century maritime tales. Discover famous names that hail from Bergen's cozy atmosphere, artworks inspired by its ideal aesthetics, and the mysterious secrets which permeate its streets. Once you have journeyed into Bergen's unique geography, you'll see why it's the heart of Norway's fjords.

02:30pm Afterwards, a driver will take you and your guide to Mount Ulriken, where you will take a cable car up to Mount Ulriken for some wonderful views over Bergen. Here you can take some walks or easy hikes, before returning to your hotel.

04:00pm Transfer back to your hotel.
