Meeting Point

Hotel Lobby

Meet your guide at the Hotel lobby. Enjoy a panoramic view of the city and learn about its history as well as its urban and architectural evolution. This half-day tour allows you to discover Lisboa, capital of Portugal, colonized by many civilizations along the centuries: Phoenicians, Greeks, Carthaginians, Romans, Moors and finally the Portuguese after 1147. We will visit Castle of Saint Jorge, including its surrounding quarter and Alfama, Lisboa's oldest quarter.

This city is linked with the heroic deeds of the Portuguese maritime exploration, in the 15th and 16th centuries. This was the Age of Discoveries and the Golden Era of Portugal, transforming Lisboa into the opulent center of a vast empire. Part of the wealth from these expeditions was used to build magnificent monuments in a unique Portuguese style: the extravagant Manueline architectural style. Some of these monuments can still be seen, especially in the area of Belem.

But Lisboa has more than just monuments! You will visit also the traditional commerce zones of the city, with their 18th century buildings: the Baixa and the Chiado neighborhoods. In short, our tour includes all the best that Lisboa has to show! There are senses that can only be felt in Lisboa. No one remains indifferent to its temperate climate and its characteristic sunlight.

The Algarve's weathered red cliffs, idyllic beaches and quiet fishing towns stretch one hundred miles across the coast of the Atlantic, giving Portugal's southernmost region a sense of being isolated from the rest of the world. Upon arrival, the sea breeze lulls visitors into a state of bliss, carrying you away with the local scents of orange blossom, charcoal-roasting fires and fresh Atlantic air.

Between golfing on cliffs above the crashing sea, exploring natural grottoes on a kayak and taking in the sunset while you enjoy crisp vinho verde and succulent seafood, you will quickly see why the Algarve is one of Europe's most loved beach destinations. Throughout the region, red and orange flowers spill from wrought iron balconies, contrasting beautifully with the crumbling white walls and bright blue sea, while 13th century churches and Moorish castles stand regally next to open air markets full of locals bartering with fishermen over the day's catch.

The friendly locals will point you in the direction of the best ways to spend your days, whether that be relaxing on an untouched beach or shopping for handmade tiles. Whichever seaside village you choose to explore, and whichever activity you choose to take on, you are sure to find yourself in constant awe of your surroundings.

Notes

Meet your driver outside the main entrance of the hotel Private transfer from hotel to Sevilla - VAN Situated on the banks of the Guadalquivir River, Sevilla has a rich Moorish heritage, and used to be a prosperous port that carried out trade with the Americas. The streets and squares in the historic quarter of the capital of Andalusia are lively and busy. They treasure many constructions that have the World Heritage designation, and many districts are full of traditional culture, like Triana and La Macarena.

Sevilla is an extremely beautiful city with a very old history. Its streets, buildings, monuments and parks bring to the mind the different cultures and civilizations that left their mark on it. It is also a city with an intense nightlife that is best enjoyed outdoors due to the mildness of its climate. Sevilla was founded by the Romans and later ruled by the Muslims since 711 until 1248. With the passing of time, Muslim culture left indelible traces on it. The top of Sevilla's splendor was reached after the discovery of America, due to the fact that throughout the 16th and 17th centuries, its port had the monopoly of trade between the peninsula and the overseas colonies. Such an intense trading activity gave rise to an urban layout filled with small palaces, noble houses, churches and convents.

Meeting Point El Arenal in Sevilla

07:15 pm - 08:30 pm Enjoy a Flamenco Show at El Arenal in Sevilla (subject to availability) Transfer to the venue on your own (easily by taxi)

07:15 pm - 08:30 pm Enjoy an authentic flamenco show. Flamenco is the traditional song and dance of the Gypsies flamencos - of Andalucía, a vast region in the South of Spain. As an art form, it developed over several centuries from Gypsy, Moorish, Andalusian, and other roots. Flamenco music and dance became popular in the early 19th century as café entertainment. Cante, -singing - is the core of flamenco, and, as well as baile or dancing, it has three forms: grande or hondo, intense, profound songs, tragic in tone, and imbued with duende - the transformation experienced by the musician under the pressure of emotion; intermedio - moderately serious, and pequeño, light songs on love and nature.

For more than 30 years, Tablao El Arenal in Seville has been presenting the spirit and magic of one of the best flamenco shows in the world. The purest and most traditional Flamenco art offered by a group of incomparable artists who, through their tempo and rhythm, will allow you to feel the emotion of this art.

For the mournful “cante jondo” to the vivacious “Sevillanas”, The New York Times has cited El Arenal as the best place in the world in which to experience the emotions of the Flamenco art. You will enjoy a great night out and feel the exotic beauty of a very typical aspect of the traditions and culture of Spain.

Sevilla Highlights Walking Tour

Meeting Point

Hotel Lobby

09:30 am - 01:00 pm Enjoy Sevilla Highlights Walking Tour with your Local Expert Guide Meet your guide at the Hotel lobby and enjoy a guided walking tour through the Barrio de Santa Cruz, the oldest and most beautiful quarter of Sevilla and learn about its history since its Roman foundation up to the present. The Santa Cruz quarter is the most colorful and attractive part of the old Jewish city. Your tour will include a visit to the Cathedral, the Giralda Tower and the Alcazar or royal fortress, a complex that has been declared World Heritage Site by UNESCO.

The Cathedral stands on the site of the Great Mosque of the 12th century. Today, the only part which remains of this structure is the minaret, also known as the Giralda due to the weather vane added to the top in the 16th century. It was converted into a Christian church when the city was conquered by Ferdinand III of Castile in 1248. Several stages of building can be seen, with examples of the Mudéjar, Gothic, Renaissance, Baroque and Neo-classical styles. The remains of Christopher Columbus lie in the cathedral.

Please note on Mondays the Cathedral closes at 03:30 pm. The Giralda is the old minaret of the Arab mosque though the bell tower, the diminishing niches and the El Giraldillo weather vane were added in the 16th century. A series of ramps takes visitors up to the bell tower, which offers outstanding views over the city. The Orange Tree Courtyard, in the Almohad style with a Visigoth pool, is to one side.

The Royal Alcazar of Sevilla is the site of the marriage of Carlos V and Isabel of Portugal. Peter I, the Cruel, rebuilt the old Almohad fortress and made it into his royal residence. It suffered serious deterioration with time and had to be refurbished during the reign of Isabel II. The interior of the building is arranged around two courtyards: the courtyard of Las Doncellas, where official life took place, or the Las Muñecas courtyard, for private life. The Ambassadors' Hall is beautifully decorated with plasterwork and tiles. The top floor is accessed by a 16th-century coffered staircase decorated with paintings by Roelas and Madrazo. Highlights include the furniture and the tapestries that decorate the different rooms. Make sure you visit the gardens. They are unique, and reflect the passing of various historical periods. Which will be your favorite? The Cross Garden, the 12th-century Garden or the Moorish Garden? Perhaps those considered being more modern, such as the English Garden, the Poets' garden or the Marquis of Vega-Inclán Garden? In all of them you will be free to feel, to take photos, to imagine... Leave your hurries behind and contemplate palm trees, cypresses, pomegranate trees, orange trees, oaks...

Stroll the beautiful streets, do some shopping or an enjoy a Spanish style Siesta.

Explore Granada's many neighborhoods on foot.

ALBAICIN

The Albaicin is the Moorish area of the city and the oldest part of Granada. It offers stunning views of the Alhambra from its hillside as it sits directly opposite the Moorish Palace. You won't find a more atmospheric place to stay in Granada than in the Albaicin. The Zirid Monarchs first established their court here in the 11th century, although little remains from this era today, apart from some crumbling remains of the wall including the section which used to encircle the Albaicín and the gates of El Arco de las Pesas, Monaita and Elvira. .

SACROMONTE

Sacromonte takes its name from the nearby Sacromonte Abbey, which was built on old Roman workings. The neighbourhood became very popular among the gitano (gypsy) community during the 19th century, and this is when many cave houses were built out of the rock. The area consequently became well-known for flamenco music and dance, however floods during the 1960s forced many gypsies out of the area. It is now a popular tourist hub.

REALEJO

For many centuries before the Christian conquest of Granada, the Realejo was the old Jewish quarter of the city. Tucked into the hillside under the Alhambra, it's a vibrant residential neighbourhood with Campo de Principe (a large square lined with bars and restaurants) at its heart. Apartments in the Realejo tend to be atmospheric affairs in characterful historic buildings with patios and roof terraces, as well as all the required mod cons. Visit "Placeta de Strummer".

CARTUJA

Sitting just outside the area that constitutes the city's Old Town and near some of Granada University's faculties, La Cartuja was for many years primarily a student neighbourhood. In recent years, however, it's become a popular place to live amongst young professionals, as the apartments in Cartuja a mix between purpose-built blocks and renovated 19th-century houses are within easy walking distance of the centre of Granada.

BIB-RAMBLA

Situated in the heart of Granada's shopping district and with the bustling, flower stall-filled Plaza Bib-Rambla as its focus, apartments in Bib-Rambla have a certain grandness to them. Convenience-wise, Bib-Rambla is pretty hard to beat, too, as in addition to all the great shopping, restaurants and bars on the doorstep, it stands equidistant between old and new quarters, and is a transport hub with a wide variety of bus connections to the rest of the city. The Plaza Bib-Rambla in Granada City.

ZAINDIN

This area is perfectly situated for El Corte Ingles (the largest department store in Spain) and the river. The apartments in Zaidin are largely purpose-built blocks which offer comfortable, modern living. Also in this area there are apartment blocks with shared facilities such as pools and gyms which are almost impossible to come by in the other areas of Granada. Alhambra and Generalife Gardens

Meeting Point

Hotel lobby

Meet your guide at the Hotel lobby and “climb” to the Alhambra. La Alhambra is the most important existing building of Muslim civil architecture. All the refinement, wealth and delicacy of Islamic art and architecture reached its climax in the South of Spain, in this unique building which is a fortress, a residence and a royal city all in one and extends itself in the gardens of El Generalife. The UNESCO in the World Heritage List included la Alhambra and the gardens of El Generalife in 1984. They embody the strength of rich and sumptuous Muslim tradition based on lavish decoration, which is one of the most outstanding elements of these unique buildings.

Please note that the tickets to the Alhambra must be booked under the name of each traveler exactly as it appears on his or her passport. We ask that you please provide this information as soon as possible so that we may move forward with the reservation.

Please note that tickets are non-refundable and do not allow changes.

The Generalife was the country residence of the Nasrid king and its orchard provided the palaces with food supplies and a recreational area for the nobility. Such vast fertile terrain was created by diverting the course of the river Darro with huge canals that reached up to the Generalife. The recreational courtyard of the Generalife, built between the 13th and 14th centuries, lies on the slopes of the Cerro del Sol, and offers breathtaking views

TERMS & CONDITIONS WITH BTA AND OUR SUPPLIER MADE FOR SPAIN AND PORTUGAL

BOOKING PROCEDURE, RESERVATIONS & PAYMENT

Many of our suppliers quote and charges in Euros. Please note that if clients decide to pay in their home currency rather than the local currency (euros), a Dynamic Currency Conversion fee (DCC) will be charged by credit card companies on top of the current foreign transaction fees. This additional charge can double the currency conversion costs. BTA is not responsible for the currency exchange nor foreign transaction fees involved, and will receive the exact quoted amount in euros regardless of these fees.

Unless otherwise specified, 25% of total cost of the trip is requested as deposit to secure and confirm a booking. Additionally, some suppliers require 10%-20% deposits to secure bookings. All services and itineraries, unless otherwise advised, should be prepaid fully 45 days before arrival. If bookings are made within 45 days of departure, full payment must be received immediately to secure and confirm a booking. For bookings 1,500 euros or less full payment is mandatory at time of booking. If payments are not made in a timely manner, BTA reserves the right to refuse to confirm the booking, or to impose a last minute reasonable fee to cover costs. Bookings including tickets only may include other fees.

SURCHARGES

The price of travel arrangements is subject to changes due to fluctuations in: hotel accommodations, transportation costs (e.g., fuel); other airline imposed surcharges; Government action, such as increases in VAT or any other Government imposed increases.

TRANSFER SERVICE POLICY

One hour waiting time is included in all airport transfers. In case of delays beyond this extra waiting time will be charged. If on arrival at the airport you have a delay waiting for luggage, please call Made for Spain and Portugal at +34 616 541 643 / +34 666 163 105 or send an e-mail to welcome@madeforspainandportugal.com to advise that you have arrived and are waiting inside the luggage area or send one of your party out into the Arrivals hall to find the driver and advise him of the delay.

Transfer service delay policy: We plan our operation considering that the maximum delay is up to 30 minutes for hotel pick-ups and 1 hour for airport or train station pick-ups. In the event of a missed flight, the transfer will be rescheduled at no cost if we are notified in time to reschedule the transfer. After which the car company may be unable to complete the service. Providing the car company has the availability to wait beyond the above-mentioned limit, they will extend the service and there will be a waiting extra charge.

LUGGAGE HANDLING AND RESTRICTIONS

Each airline has specific rules and requirements regarding baggage size, weight, and even design. It is the responsibility of the party to make sure that baggage brought on any flight adheres to the size, weight, and design requirements of the airline. Smaller planes or helicopters often require smaller and lighter baggage. Airlines will likely charge fees for baggage that exceeds weight and size requirements. On smaller planes and helicopters, oversized baggage or baggage that is too heavy may not be allowed on the flight for safety reasons. If any item, terms, or conditions of this document are found to be invalid or illegal, all other remaining items, terms, and conditions will still apply.

OUTDOOR EXPERIENCES

It is important that you, as our client, understand that any outdoor experience may be sensitive weather and other local conditions beyond the control of the supplier and of Made for Spain and Portugal. Our local supplier is best suited to assess local logistical conditions and to make a final decision as to whether or not it is safe to proceed with the excursion. If, in the sole opinion of the local supplier, conditions make it unsafe to enjoy the experience, the local supplier will cancel the experience and a full refund will be credited to the client. In the event, however, that you choose, for whatever reason, to cancel your participation in the experience, there will be no refund due.

INSURANCE

BTA strongly recommends you to buy trip cancellation/interruption insurance.
