About Paris

Paris, France

Like all the world's great capitals, Paris lives at a fast pace, by day and night. It is divided into 20 districts that spiral out like a snail shell from the first, centered round the Louvre. Enjoy a stroll through Paris while on vacation and soak up the "art de vivre", it will feel as if you are walking through an open-air museum. Admire the city's regal buildings, gardens, fountains and places which have witnessed so monumental events & so fascinating history.

Paris is a place of iconic architecture, with its famous cloud-piercing Eiffel tower, Arc de Triomphe at the end of the most famous avenue of the world, les Champs-Elysees. Notre-Dame and its gargoyles, old bridges and Art Nouveau cafes are famously part of the City. Always evolving, the City now proudly shows the contemporary Centre Pompidou and the Musee du Quai Branly and its vegetal wall.

Paris is also famous for its cuisine. Anywhere from cosy bistros to three-star Michelin stars, you'll be able to find quality produces, with excellent presentation and preparation, always served with wine. Stop at the cheese shops, boulangeries, patisseries for top produces to take to a picnic in the city's parks and gardens.

Lastly, browse designer boutiques, flagship haute couture stores, concept stores to find the perfect dress. Wander in vintage shops and flea markets, original bookshops and bookseller on the banks of the Seine, antique dealers, gourmet food and wine shops galore

Culture In Paris At The Louvre Without Crowds

+1-202-684-6916

Port de la Bourdonnais 75007 Paris, France

Meeting Point

Arc du Carrousel. The Arc du Carrousel (a triumphal arch) is located inside the Place du Carrousel, standing between the Louvre Pyramid and the Tuileries Gardens

Description

The best way to see the Mona Lisa is without the crowds that almost always surround her. Because there is no way to get her all to yourself, we've done the next best thing: As the museum starts to close and everyone else rushes for the doors, we take advantage of the natural thinning of crowds.

Entering at this time, you'll find the room almost totally empty so you can get up close to the great lady for a peaceful 20-minute visit with your guide. Of course, you'll see the best of the rest too. You'll spend 3 hours viewing the very best artwork in the Louvre with an art historian, learning what makes these masterpieces so world-renowned.

As one of the world's most famous paintings, the Mona Lisa rarely gets much peace. During regular visiting hours, she is almost constantly mobbed by hundreds of people, severely compromising any time you get to spend with her. In order to avoid the crowds, we'll take you to see her after most visitors have left and give you plenty of space to enjoy her beauty.

Tested and perfected through countless research trips, your itinerary inverts the normal Louvre route allowing you to see much more than other visitors who are on the normal tours that try to fit the rest of the museum into 1.5 hours.

During the tour, your guide will show you Louvre's most treasured sights, including the historic foundations of the King's palace moat, Greek and Roman sculptures like the 'Venus de Milo', 'Cupid & Psyche', and Michelangelo's 'Slaves'; and many of the greatest works ever created by French artists such as 'Liberty Leading the People' by Delacroix and 'The Raft of Medusa' by Géricault. You'll also see France's old crown jewels, the world-famous 'Winged Victory' monument, and works from Italian painters like Caravaggio, Raphael, and da Vinci.

There are many ways to see the Louvre, but only one way shows you all the best works and gets you in front of the Mona Lisa after most of the crowds have left. Your guide takes care of all the time and logistics so all you have to do is enjoy the art.

Sites Visited:

- The Mona Lisa
- Medieval Moat
- Classic Greek Art Rooms
- Italian Sculpture Rooms
- French Painting Rooms

Paris Catacombs With VIP Access

2, avenue du Général Leclerc, 75014 Paris

Meeting Point

In front of the Café du Rendez-vous, located on the 2,
avenue du Général Leclerc - 75014 Paris

Description

Below the streets of Paris lurks an entire secret history of the city's dead. On this unique storytelling tour, you'll visit the Paris Catacombs to see the remains of millions of Parisians and learn about the fascinating ways in which this ancient city has dealt with its dead. As you explore these eerie tunnels, you also enjoy special access to parts of the Catacombs, usually closed to the public, and facts and stories from an expert local guide.

Your tour starts by skipping the lines to walk directly into the Catacombs. This vast, underground cemetery is composed of miles of underground tunnels lined with the skulls and bones of some 6 million Parisians. Then, in the company of a local expert guide and a small group of 20 people or fewer, you'll explore this unbelievable city of the dead where each room reveals more ornate and macabre bone decorations ever.

Along the way, you'll hear the unbelievable story of how the catacombs were built and the massive project was undertaken to move bones from around the city to this point. Your special-access status means the guards will also open gates just for your group, letting you into areas like a secret chapel ornately decorated with skulls and femurs. Believe it or not, the Paris Catacombs are just as much a symbol of the city at Notre Dame or the Eiffel Tower. They contain bones representing some 2,000 years of history, and their construction was a unique civil engineering project that helped give rise to the modern city. So if you want to see a different and astonishing side of the City of Lights, this is the perfect place to start.

Day 7

Self Guided Visit to Portofino or Rapallo

Image credits: Pixabay

A mere 10 drive from Santa Margherita lies one of the most beautiful bays in all of Italy. Famous around the world as the playground of the rich and famous Portofino basks in its timeless glory while embracing travelers of all backgrounds.

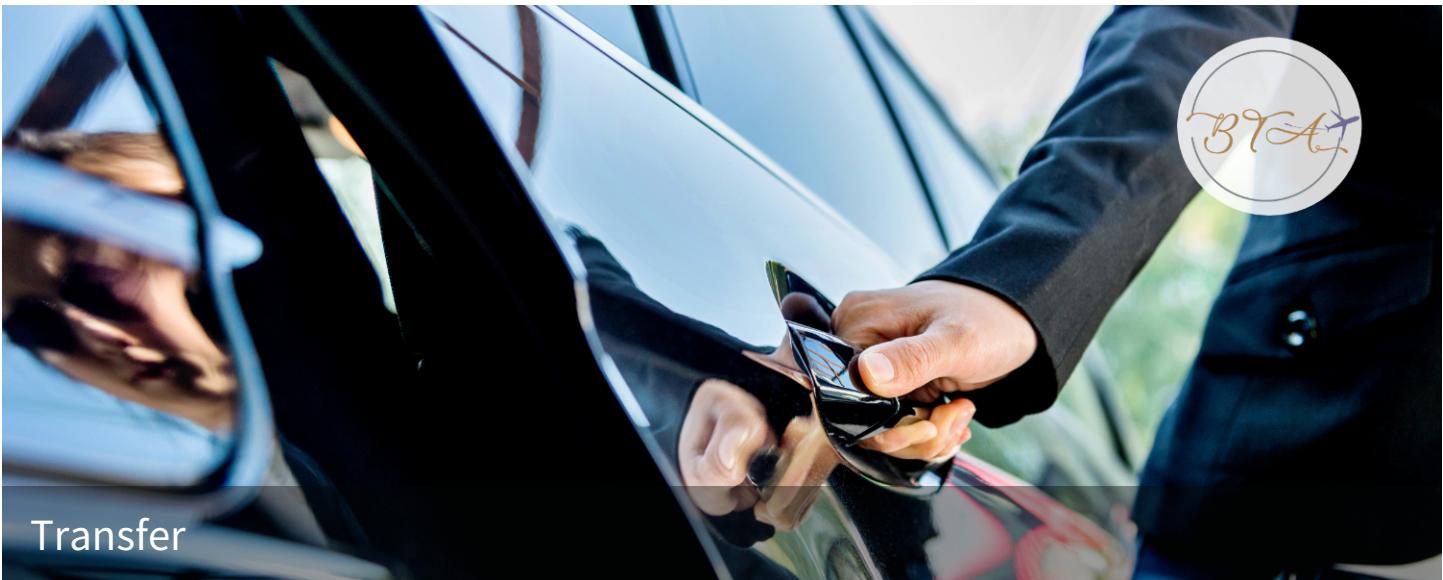

Just as Winston Churchill, Grace Kelly and Liz Taylor once spent their days lazily sailing along the coastline in their mega yachts and spent their evenings eating freshly caught fish with the paparazzi on their heels so do todays celebrities and the ultra wealthy from George Clooney to Steven Spielberg continue the tradition.

The reason it has maintained this steady stream of celebrity sightings for decades is due to its exclusivity and natural beauty.

Take a walk amongst the beautiful meandering streets, hike up to the view point and sip a cocktail at the famous Al Faro di Portofino, located on the terrace of Portofino's 100-year-old lighthouse. Al Faro boasts some of the most breathtaking views in the area, made all the more worthwhile as it can only be reached on foot after climbing several hundred stairs.

We recommend arriving in the afternoon for some relaxed strolling and shopping, the popping over to Al Faro for a drink before settling in at one of the excellent seaside restaurants for dinner.

The first destination on your great escape is Como, where we will board a boat for a 2-hour cruise along the lake. This is a unique opportunity to admire the breathtaking landscapes and see villas of the rich and famous all around the lake. Lake Como is a famous holiday destination for stars and celebrities, and during the cruise, your guide will point out George Clooney's villa, plus villas that once hosted Star Wars and James Bond movie sets. During this relaxing cruise, you will have time to take pictures and learn from your guide about stories and anecdotes of the lake while enjoying a drink or a snack at the bar and restaurant on the boat.

Next, we reach the famous city of Bellagio, the “pearl of Lake Como”. Once in Bellagio, you will have free time to enjoy the town and do some shopping, or just relaxing and eating some local food in the most nostalgic bars and restaurants in the city. Once you have had a chance to take some photos and enjoy the town’s charming atmosphere, you will board a motorcoach to continue your journey to Lugano.

Would you rather explore the elegant city center? No problem! Make your way over to the beautiful downtown shopping area, brimming with inviting shops, rich Swiss chocolate, and fine luxury goods. The choice is yours.
