Day 6

Image credits: Rishi Jhajharia on Unsplash

Monaco Free Day

Things To Do:

1. Monte Carlo Casino

When visiting Monaco in 1 day, you shouldn't miss Montecarlo Casino. This famous landmark is a spectacular Belle Epoque building that also houses the Opera House.

When visiting, remember to take your passport or identity card and for men, to wear a jacket and a tie. The entry fee varies depending on which rooms you are visiting. All casino visitors must be aged 18 or over.

2. Monte Carlo Cathedral

The Cathedral is often known as Saint Nicholas, and is the place where Prince Rainier and Princess Grace were married. Built-in 1875 on the site of a 13th-century church, it's located in the old town. Also in the old town, nicknamed The Rock (or Le Rocher in French), don't miss the guard changing every day at 11.55 am.

3. The Prince's Palace

The guards stand watch over the Prince's Palace. Whether you visit Monaco in one day or for longer, this imposing building definitely merits a visit. The State Apartments house stunning 16th-century frescoes. The old town itself has some picturesque cobbled streets lined with restaurants and gift shops.

4. Gardens in Monaco

The Exotic Gardens contain thousands of rare plants and a grotto. The Princess Grace Rose Garden is located within Fontvieille Park, and has recently been remodelled and extended. There are 8,000 rose bushes and 300 different varieties.

5. Yachts in Monaco

La Condamine holds the Port of Monte-Carlo, and the Yacht Club designed by Sir Norman Foster and Partners. It takes centre stage in Monte-Carlo's remodelled harbour. The luxurious boats in Monaco are definitely worth having a look at.

6. Monaco Top Cars Collection

Another interesting attraction is HSH The Prince of Monaco's Vintage Car Collection. There are almost 100 classic cars, Formula one race cars, and a very rare pink Mercedes Benz 300 SL Gullwing Coupé.

Day 7

Eze - The French Riviera Magical Town

11:00 AM

Start Time

Meeting Point

Hotel Lobby

Eze

Eze is a medieval village perched like an eagle's nest on a narrow rocky peak overlooking the Mediterranean Sea. The ancient fortified village is still crowned with the ruins of its 12th-century fortified castle (torn down in 1706), sitting on a narrow rocky peak. The castle grounds host the well-known Jardin Exotique, and from the top (429 m) you'll have a good view of the coast.

The village forms a circular pattern around the base of the castle. The old buildings and narrow streets are very well restored, with high stone walls and narrow roadways of red-brick-centered stone. The narrow roads wind their way upward to the well sign-posted Jardin Exotique Panorama. When you finally arrive at the top, you'll find the way to the Jardin, and the panoramic view.
