At Boutique Travel Advisors, we believe luxury travel goes beyond welcome chocolates on pillows & first-class seats. Luxury travel can be subjective. To us, the definition of luxury travel embodies having the privilege to explore & experience the infinitely possible wonderments the world has to offer when we decide to mindfully venture outside of our comfort zone in our home environment.

From booking bespoke safaris in South Africa, serenely scenic river cruises through France's waterways, to private wine (+ pasta) tastings on the Amalfi Coast... BTA strives to curate each itinerary with credible expertise, dedicated service & the whole-hearted intention for each traveler to exceed their travel goals and expectations while on the adventure of a lifetime.

BTA is proudly a women-owned & run company. Co-owners and luxury travel curators, Janet Semenova and Angie Rice, are dedicated to a thorough 5-step process for connecting with clients, both as client-to-expert and traveler-to-traveler, to design a seamlessly tailored travel plan.

Your BTA travel itinerary is more than a document of scheduled flights, tours, and dinner reservations. It is the motherboard, the holy grail, the backbone of a journey that turns unique experiences into eye-widening, jaw-dropping, life-changing moments that will evolve into memories worthy of being cherished for a lifetime.

Our purpose is to make your travel dreams come true... All we ask is, where will your journey take you?

Amsterdam Introduction

Tell anyone you're going to Amsterdam and there's a fair chance they'll either sigh with envy or give you a sly nod. Amsterdam's reputation for tolerance laced with sin precedes it, but equally renowned are its scenic and cultural attractions.

Amsterdam hotels are known for their cleanliness and hospitality, its restaurants offer world cuisine, and along the city streets is a shopper's paradise. Most visitors fall in love with the city and return again and again. Amsterdam is nourished by a wealth of museums, concert halls, and avant-garde theater and dance venues. Its relaxed and tolerant attitudes draw those looking for a creative, anything-goes atmosphere.

Large numbers of beautiful tree-lined canals are bordered by streets with rows of narrow, gabled houses and 17th-century warehouses, making Amsterdam an architectural treasure trove. Amsterdam is much smaller in population (but no less interesting) than many European capitals. As a result, much of the city center can be comfortably explored on foot—or, if you want to look like a true local, by bicycle.

For more information, check out the Amsterdam, Netherlands guide in the 'Guides' section in the itinerary app.

2:00pm

Meet your private guide in the lobby of your hotel. Start off with a walking tour through the historic center of Amsterdam and admire the merchant houses, the floating flower market and the antique streets. The walking tour will end at the National Museum of Art, the Rijksmuseum. The presentation of the Rijksmuseum collection is a journey through Dutch art and history from the Middle Ages and Renaissance until the 20th century. In 2019 the Rijksmuseum celebrates the Year of Rembrandt with major exhibitions, events and activities throughout the year, as this is the year Rembrandt past away 350 years ago.

After visiting the Rijksmuseum we will continue our discovery of Amsterdam from the waterside. You will begin your boat tour on the Paradis boat, which is located right outside of the Rijksmuseum.

The Zaanse Schans Windmill Village and Edam - Half Day

9:00 AM	1:00 PM	4hr
Start Time	End Time	Duration

Meeting Point

Hotel Lobby

9:00am

Meet your local guide and private driver in the lobby of your hotel. We will start this tour with a short trip to the windmill village of the Zaanse Schans, a characteristic living and working town on the banks of the river Zaan. Steep roofs, with windows and green timber are the characteristics of this little town. Homes and windmills from the 17th and 18th century. In museums, workshops and windmills you can experience how the Zaan-siders lived and worked. The Zaanse Schans is a fully inhabited, open-air conservation area and museum located 9 miles north of Amsterdam. Original buildings vividly depict Dutch life in the 17th and 18th centuries. The authentic houses, the historic shipyard, the clog-making demonstrations and, above all, the windmills, attract hundreds of thousands of visitors each year.

Before returning to Amsterdam, we visit the medieval town of Edam. The most obvious association with the name 'Edam' is its cheese. For centuries the well-known round Edam cheeses have been sent from this town to all corners of the world. The cheese market, once again restored to its place of honor, is enacted weekly on Wednesdays during the summer months. Nearby cheese warehouses keep alive the memory of a colorful past.

Edam is a city with a rich history. It began in the 12th century, when farmers and fishermen settled along the little Ye river. With that 'Yedam' was a fact. This primitive settlement developed into an increasingly prosperous town well into the 17th century. Shipbuilding played an important role in this growth. Once Edam had 33 ship-yards buildings. A good example is the 'Halve Maen', the ship that the English Captain Henry Hudson sailed in 1609 when attempting to discover a northern route to the East Indies. A futile attempt in fact, because he ended up on the island of Manhattan!

1:00pm

End of the tour, back in your hotel.

Fall in love with all the various delicious snacks and dishes Amsterdam has to offer. In a city that has been influenced by many different cultures and cuisines, you can find anything that fits your taste! In this tour we've combined the most authentic local bites of the Dutchies into one tasty private tour. All exclusively for you and your group!

During this local food journey, you'll walk through the amazing Pijp area together with your private host. This area is the most cosmopolitan and vibrant district of Amsterdam and almost no travelers know how to truly discover this region on their own. Luckily you have your local guide to show and tell you all there is!

In the Pijp, hip cafes are popping up next to the authentic local bars, creating a unique vibe of the old and new Amsterdam. Many family restaurants that passed on from generation to generation can still be found here, during the day there is the biggest market of Europe and you'll find beautiful parks, Dutch architecture, and monuments along the route. The best location for Amsterdam's Favorite Private Food tour!

Walk past all the local vendors at the Albert Cuyp market, where you're always greeted with a warm smile. Enjoy the famous "stroopwafel" along the way, freshly prepared for you by a true Amsterdamer. You will also taste the best fish of Amsterdam, or as the locals call it: a "vissie". Something that everyone loves is the fried fish, but if you'd really like to go local you're invited to taste a real herring! And of course, what are the Dutch without cheese? A delicious cheese tasting is also included for you at the best beer café in Amsterdam!

London Introduction

@TRAVELBTA

Experience London, one of the multicultural capitals of the world! Over the years, this iconic European city has evolved into a rich melting pot of diversity. Art, culture and cuisine thrive brilliantly in this home to over 8 million, offering international flair while maintaining a distinct British quality. Visit one of the many free entry museums, go to the theater, or see the city from atop the London Eye to make your stay truly special.

If you're visiting London, England, for the first time, you may arrive expecting a European city that overflows with pomp and pageantry. Few visitors to London will fail to be impressed by the grandeur and craftsmanship of such monumental sights as Westminster Abbey or St. Paul's Cathedral, but that's just the historical foundation of today's modern, vibrant city.

Cosmopolitan London has every visitor attraction from Bengali markets to designer boutiques to world-class art exhibitions to hand-written Beatles lyrics at the British Library.

London offers the best of British food, fashion and cultural pursuits, but its multicultural population gives it an international flair, as well. London has a lively mix of languages, dress, festivals and bustling street life. As for sightseeing, visitors to London can admire orchids at Kew Gardens, gaze on the crown jewels at the Tower of London, learn about millennia of history at the British Museum and witness spectacular views of the city from the London Eye Ferris wheel—all in a day. An interest in the arts or royalty may be what draws you to the capital of England, but you don't have to be an avid theatergoer or a history buff to enjoy yourself thoroughly. Sporting and cultural events take place across the capital, showing off this festive city at its best. London is a place you will want to visit again and again, and each time you visit, the city will have something new to offer.

Browns Hotel Lobby

London is experiencing a revolution! Far away from the glitzy lights of the West End and Royal areas, an artistic revolution is gathering pace in the area of the city that you almost certainly haven't visited. The East End of London is home to some of the most creative, subversive, and downright joyous pieces of art, in one of the biggest open air galleries in the world. The street walls are the canvasses, the sunlight is the lighting, and the artworks are ever-changing, vibrant and captivating.

The most famous street artist, Banksy, has a few pieces in this area, but there is so much more to explore, from big name artists such as Shepherd Fairey, Stik and Invader, to lesser known or more local artists, such as ThisOne, Otto Schade, Fanakapan and Zabou. Come on an exciting tour of one of London's more unique districts, and be inspired yourself!

Churchill War Rooms – Behind the Glass tour

A private tour of Churchill War Rooms offers you an unparalleled opportunity to walk back in history. You will be taken inside the historic rooms, behind the glass that general visitors only look through, and see at close quarters where Winston Churchill, his War Cabinet and Chiefs of Staff met and worked during the Second World War. The guides for the tours are highly qualified members of staff, with incomparable knowledge of the site, its history, stories and occupants' lives.

Your tour begins with an overview of the history of the War Rooms from the perspective of those who worked here during the Second World War. Nowhere can you gain a better feel for this than inside the War Cabinet Room, where you and your guests will be taken on arrival. You are encouraged to bring your camera for unique opportunities to take souvenir photos.

The next stop on your tour is inside the Map Room, the central hub of operations throughout the Second World War. This room was manned 24 hours a day from a week before war broke out in 1939 until the lights were switched off in August 1945, six years later, and is preserved just as it was in 1945. You will be astonished by the atmosphere and the small details of the room. Look closely at the convoy map and see the tens of thousands of tiny pin holes showing precisely tracked convoy movements around the world. View rationed sugar cubes, carefully squirreled away by one of the Map Room officers who forgot them when he left in August 1945. Take in the original paperwork on the tables, carefully documenting the work of the Map Room. Your tour will end in the Churchill Museum, where you will be shown highlights of this award-winning, fascinating multimedia museum.

Imperial War Museum

The wars of the twentieth century have affected each and every one of us in some way - find out the stories of those who lived, fought and died in conflict at Imperial War Museum London. This National Museum dedicated to the 20th Century is a place of great diversity. Its exhibits range from tanks and aircraft to personal letters and ration books; it also includes films and sound recordings and some of the century's best known paintings. The museum exists to record and explain the two world wars and many other conflicts fought since 1945, to examine what led up to them as well as what happened during and after them.

Visit the newly opened World War I Galleries! Discover the story of the First World War through the lives of those who experienced it both on the front line and at home. Find out what life was like at home during the First World War in Britain and its former Empire. Discover the reasons why men signed up to fight and how Britain came under enemy air attacks. Uncover the contributions women made in factories, hospitals and elsewhere to keep the troops fed and fighting.

Royal Mews

One of the finest working stables in existence, the Royal Mews at Buckingham Palace provides a unique opportunity for visitors to see the work of the Royal Household Department that provides road transport for The Queen and members of the Royal Family by both horse-drawn carriage and motor car. The Royal Mews has a permanent display of State vehicles. These include the magnificent Gold State Coach used for Coronations and those carriages used for Royal and State occasions, State Visits, weddings and the State Opening of Parliament. A State motor vehicle is also usually on display.

ABOUT HAMILTON THE MUSICAL LONDON

Hamilton is an award-winning West End musical production about the life of Alexander Hamilton, the American Founding Father. Taking place in London's Victoria Palace Theatre in the West End, the must-see musical covers the lifetime of Alexander and his role in shaping America's very foundations. Taking part in two acts, the play covers everything from his roots as an immigrant from the West Indies, to his rise to becoming the right-hand man of George Washington during the Revolutionary War.

The musical score of the play blends a mix of Broadway, rap, blues, jazz, R&B and hip hop, aptly reflecting modern America while telling the story of a pivotal point in America's history. With stunning lyrics, book and music curated by Lin-Manuel Miranda along with choreography from Andy Blankenbuehler, the production promises to showcase an amazing line up of talent. The show is directed by Thomas Kail and based on the biography 'Alexander Hamilton' by Ron Chernow, with Alex Lacamoire acting as co-arranger and in charge of orchestrations.

Along with Alexander Hamilton, the Hamilton musical characters also include Hercules Mulligan, James Madison, Eliza Hamilton, Marquis de Lafayette, Thomas Jefferson, John Laurens, Aaron Burr, Peggy Schuyler, Maria Reynolds and Philip Hamilton. The play also includes characters Angelica Schuyler, George Washington and King George.

Hamilton originally opened in New York's Public Theatre in 2015 to rave reviews. The musical has won many awards, including the Olivier award, Tony award and Grammy awards to name a few. In 2017 the Broadway production came to London and to its current home of Victoria Palace Theatre.

About Paris

Like all the world's great capitals, Paris lives at a fast pace, by day and night. It is divided into 20 districts that spiral out like a snail shell from the first, centered round the Louvre. Enjoy a stroll through Paris while on vacation and soak up the "art de vivre", it will feel as if you are walking through an open-air museum. Admire the city's regal buildings, gardens, fountains and places which have witnessed so monumental events & so fascinating history.

Paris is a place of iconic architecture, with its famous cloud-piercing Eiffel tower, Arc de Triomphe at the end of the most famous avenue of the world, les Champs-Elysees. Notre-Dame and its gargoyles, old bridges and Art Nouveau cafes are famously part of the City. Always evolving, the City now proudly shows the contemporary Centre Pompidou and the Musee du Quai Branly and its vegetal wall.

Paris is also famous for its cuisine. Anywhere from cosy bistros to three-star Michelin stars, you'll be able to find quality produces, with excellent presentation and preparation, always served with wine. Stop at the cheese shops, boulangeries, patisseries for top produces to take to a picnic in the city's parks and gardens.

Lastly, browse designer boutiques, flagship haute couture stores, concept stores to find the perfect dress. Wander in vintage shops and flea markets, original bookshops and bookseller on the banks of the Seine, antique dealers, gourmet food and wine shops galore

We cannot wait to see your picture-perfect, Insta-worthy travel moments... And to live vicariously through your travel adventures!

Giving Back

BTA is committed to philanthropy and giving back to the local communities which we visit. A portion of all proceeds are donated each year to support organizations around the world.

We encourage our travelers to discover the joys of philanthropy and have partnered with two incredible organizations which provide necessary supplies to local hospitals, clinics, schools and shelters in dozens of countries. Take a look at their websites and see if their mission and values align with your travel goals. BTA is here to help you make responsible and ethical travel decisions and are happy to answer any questions you may have.

Not Just Tourists was founded with the purpose of getting medical supplies to those who can't afford them. Ordinary tourists are given the means to change the lives of the locals they visit.

- Not Just Tourists receives donations from hospitals, clinics, medical suppliers and individuals.
- The supplies are packed by volunteers into suitcases during weekly "packing parties".
- Travellers sign up and are given the suitcases to deliver to remote clinics where they are needed.
- The project does not accept funding, is non-political, non-religious. Everything is accomplished through volunteers.

- The Phoenix chapter of NJT is run by Dr. Jon Hornstein with the assistance of his wife, BTA's co-founder Janet Semenova and their children.
- Please contact JbHorn10@hotmail.com for more information on how you can help change lives

Pack For A Purpose was founded by Rebecca Rothney with the simple vision that every traveler has the ability to make a difference. Their slogan "Small Space. Little Effort. Big Impact." has helped change the lives of thousands of people around the globe. You too can make a big impact in the communities you visit. Simply use a small amount of space in your luggage to pack supplies needed by community projects around the world.

- 5 EASY STEPS
- Select your destination
- Find an accommodation or tour company and a project it supports.
- Choose the supplies you wish to take from the specific items requested.
- Drop off the supplies at the accommodation or tour company.
- They will be delivered to the project; it's that easy!

Sustainable Travel:

To intentionally travel in a manner that preserves and conserves the planet's communities, economies, and environments, meeting the current needs of present hosts & visitors AND future generations.

Sustainable Travel

Travelers need to be aware of how their travel choices affect the world around us.

The UN World Tourism Organization's holistic definition of sustainable tourism:

"Tourism that takes full account of its current and future economic, social and environmental impacts, addressing the needs of visitors, the industry, the environment and host communities."

Why is it important to travel sustainably?

With the rapid growth of global travelers, a projected 1.6 billion international tourists in 2020 alone, it is more critical than ever that proactive, intentional actions are taken to minimize the inevitable, back-of-the-hand negative effects of tourism.

Sustainable travel practices enhance the potential opportunity for future generations, our children's children and beyond, to travel and experience the world in the same (and hopefully, better) way we can and do, today.

See UNWTO's 2019 report here for more tourism statistics.

Awareness & education are key to a mutually positive experience between the host destination and tourist. To be a SUSTAINABLE, mindful, responsible, conscious traveler, it takes compassion, empathy, open-mindedness, thoughtfulness and the genuine consideration to leave a place better than when you found it. And who knows... You may leave as a better person just as well. :)

Sustainable Travel Tips:

- Be culturally mindful. The antidote to culture shock is to do your homework upon visiting a destination.
- Be aware, knowledgeable & informed going into your travel endeavor and you'll find that it naturally easier to immerse yourself in the country's culture, embrace + respect what is new and different, and connect with locals.

- You have expectations of the host destination, but the host destination has expectations of you, too, as the visitor.
- Support local communities. Local independent businesses who source their products locally/sustainably and take extra good care of people and the planet, are worth investing in.
- Buy locally made products and souvenirs.
- Eat at local restaurants and cafés & try to avoid chains/franchises. PLUS, you get a deliciously authentic taste of the culture (pun intended)!
- Remember: As a consumer, you vote with your dollar. By supporting small local businesses, you are directly stimulating the communities' economy, helping preserve the environment, supporting livelihoods and the vibrancy of local cultures.
- Reduce food and plastic waste. Avoid hotel buffets (food waste mayhem) and eat à la carte instead! Also, recycle whenever you can.
- Limit energy use and conserve water. Turn off the lights, television & water when not in use.
- Support natural habitats & wildlife. Make sure responsible, ethical and conservational practices are a part of the activities you partake in.
- Go out and explore on foot or by bike to reduce your carbon footprint.
- Leave a place better than when you found it. Treat the foreign environment as if it was your home environment. You would not litter in your own front lawn, would you?

Do no harm, leave no trace. Keep in mind that each & every effort counts, no matter how small. A little (really, truly) goes a long way.
