THE U.K. ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

Please carefully review the following:

- United States-United Kingdom Covid-19 Travel Restrictions & Requirements
- U.S. Embassy in the United Kingdom – COVID-19 Information

For entry into the UK, you will need:

- Proof of a negative COVID-19 test (taken 3 days prior to departure to the UK)
- Passenger Locator Form

Coronavirus (COVID-19) testing before you travel to England

You must take the test in the 3 days before the service on which you will arrive in England departs.

For example, if you travel directly to England on Friday, you can take the test on or after Tuesday and will need to have the negative result available before boarding on Friday.

Watch this: short video on testing rules

Fill out the form here

You must complete a passenger locator form online before you arrive in the UK. You must complete the form even if you are only transiting through the UK.

You can submit the form any time in the 48 hours before you arrive in the UK. After you complete the form you will receive a QR code via email. You can print this out or show it on your phone as proof of completion.

Effective August 2, 2021, fully vaccinated US residents or those fully vaccinated in the EU will be able to travel to England and Scotland from amber countries (including the United States) without having to quarantine on arrival. Fully vaccinated passengers will still be required to provide proof of full vaccination, a negative Covid-19 test taken 3 days prior to arrival and pre-purchase and complete a Covid-19 test on day 2 after arrival.

Step 1. Must be fully vaccinated (Pfizer & Moderna only) and bring proof of vaccination (CDC card)

Step 2. Get PCR test 3 days prior to arrival (remember lose calendar day in travel)

Step 3. Order & obtain a pre-purchase a PCR Covid 19 test for 2 day post-arrival. You had asked about this previously. Delta & Virgin are recommending Azova, which is a virtual test similar to what you mentioned to me. LINK. Azova will send you a “booking reference number” which you will need for Step 4.

Step 4. 48 hours before departure, complete the UK Travel Passenger Form with the UK government. Be prepared to provide flight info, passport info, & pre-paid day 2 reference number. LINK.

Step 5. Following arrival, submit to two-day test

How to provide proof of a negative test result

Your test result can be provided as:

- a printed document
- an email or text message you can show on your phone - make sure your device is charged

Important Message from Decouvertes, dated August 12, 2021

Dear Advisors with clients arriving in the next 15 days,

There is now an email procedure to obtain a Pass sanitaire, in the form of a QR code.

Clients can read closely the section “How to obtain a pass sanitaire” of the covid journal to apply: “How to obtain a Pass sanitaire” <https://bit.ly/France-Covid19-updates>” --

You should know that this is a human powered service by the French administration, so there might be a slight delay in obtaining it but travelers currently on the ground will be given priority.

The application is taking place by email for now and priority will be given to travelers who are on the French ground currently or arrive in the next 15 days. Therefore, please expect to receive the QR codes relatively at the last minute.

Please read through the instructions carefully so your application is complete. I would recommend grouping all pax in one email so you have all QR codes at once.

Kind regards,

“Please read through the sections of “Entry requirements” and “On-ground requirements” of the Covid Journal to ensure your clients comply with the requirements and can enjoy their trip as planned:<https://bit.ly/France-Covid19-updates>”

IRELAND ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

Please carefully review the following:

- France-Ireland Travel Requirements & Restrictions
- U.S. Embassy in Ireland - COVID-19 Information

For entry into Ireland, you will need:

- Proof of a negative COVID-19 PCR Test (taken within 72 hours prior to arrival in Ireland)
- Passenger Locator Form

Click here to complete the online COVID-19 Passenger Locator Form

Passenger Locator Form

Travelers to Ireland must fill out a Passenger Locator Form. Failure to complete this form is an offense. See Irish Government guidance on completing the form online, who is exempt, and penalties for failure to submit an online form. Passenger Locator Form will be checked by their air or sea carrier before departure. Passengers may also be asked for proof of vaccination or a negative PCR test. Individuals traveling from Great Britain to Ireland via Northern Ireland should also complete a Passenger Locator Form.

Traveling when fully vaccinated

No travel-related testing or quarantine will be necessary for travelers from the UK with valid proof of full vaccination. On arrival in Ireland, fully vaccinated passengers traveling from Great Britain will need to have proof of their full vaccination, for example showing their NHS App Covid Pass, a vaccination status letter, or their NHS vaccine paper card.

Children under the age of 12 will not need to take a PCR test prior to traveling to Ireland.
For more information on the Irish Government's definition of fully vaccinated, see the Irish Government website.

Traveling when not fully vaccinated

Passengers without proof of full vaccination will still require evidence of a pre-departure negative RT-PCR test result within 72 hours prior to arrival in Ireland and will have to quarantine at home for 14 days. This can be reduced to a minimum of 5 days with a negative PCR test which will be provided by the Health Service Executive in Ireland from day 5 after arrival. This is also the case for children aged 12 and over.

All tipping is discretionary and based on the quality of service you receive.

TIPPING INFORMATION

Gratuities in France, while extremely welcome and appreciated, are not as much ‘expected’ as they are in other countries and are totally optional.

If you are happy with the service you have enjoyed and would like to show your gratitude to the people who made it a very special experience for you here below you can find the amounts we recommend for Tour Guides, Drivers and other special services:

- Local guides: 30-40 euros per full day
- Drivers / meet & greet: 20 euros per full day
- Hotel doormen: 3-5 euros
- Porters: 1-2 euros per bag
- Restaurants: 5% if not included on bill, or 1-2 euros per person
- Taxis: 10-15% of fare
- Housekeeping staff 2 Euro/day

The above amounts are to be considered per service and not per person

In Ireland, there are no set rules for tipping. While tips are sometimes appreciated, there are other times when your tip might even be refused. The Irish pride themselves in delivering a service for the sake of it, not for an additional tip. Although, tips will be expected more often in a large city like Dublin than anywhere else in Ireland.

Knowing when to tip in Ireland can be tricky if you aren't accustomed to the culture. For example, some may find it odd that it's acceptable to tip at a restaurant, but not at a pub. These guidelines will help you navigate Ireland's unique tipping culture.

Note that if you are traveling to Northern Ireland, where you'd go to visit Belfast or the Giant's Causeway, you will be technically in the United Kingdom, where the currency is the Pound sterling and tipping customs may differ slightly from the Republic of Ireland, where the official currency is the euro.

Hotels

Irish accommodation providers, in general, have factored in all costs. You are not expected to tip excessively in Irish hotels and no tips are needed if the hotel is small and staffed directly by the owners, such as a small bed and breakfast or guest house.

Porters who help carry your bag to your room might expect a tip of €1-2 per bag. If you do not wish to tip them, you can politely refuse and carry the bag yourself. Tips for housekeeping is optional, but you can leave €1-2 per day for exceptional service. If you take advantage of the hotel concierge and receive great advice and service, you can leave a tip of €1-2. You don't need to tip the doorman for holding the door or hailing a cab, but if they go above and beyond, you can tip them €1-2.

Restaurants and Pubs

At bars and pubs, tipping is uncommon. It's rare to tip a bartender, as most do not expect it and some may even refuse it. At restaurants, it's likely you'll find that a service charge has already been added to your bill. In this case, no further tipping is necessary, but you can leave a little more if you're extra happy with the service (€2-3).

If you are unsure if a service charge has been included, you can tip your server 10 percent to 15 percent of the total bill. You can also round up to the nearest even amount. If the service was truly terrible, you can try to dispute the service fee. At fast food restaurants in Ireland, it's not necessary to tip. Tipping bartenders in Ireland is simply not done and might even earn you an incredulous stare. If you'd really like to show your appreciation, you can offer to treat them to a drink. When you see a tip jar at a café or bistro in Ireland, know that tipping is totally optional. If you'd like, you can leave a few coins.

Transportation

At the end of your trip, your taxi driver is obliged to give you a printed receipt, which will not include a service charge. If for any reason you need a receipt including tips, you can ask for an additional handwritten receipt.

Taxi drivers in Ireland are generally not expecting a tip, but you can round up your fare to the nearest even amount if you like. If you take a shuttle from the airport, you don't have to tip your driver but you can give €1 per bag if they assist you with your luggage.

Tours

When it comes to tourism and sightseeing tours in Ireland, tipping is a little more common.

For a private tour, you should tip your guide 10 percent of what you paid for the tour. On a group tour, it's likely that a basket will be passed around at the end of the tour. In this case, it's appropriate to contribute €1-2 or more, depending on how satisfied you were with the tour. It's possible that your guide might refuse the tip, but you can insist.

Spas and Salons

At spas and salons in Ireland, tipping is more common of a practice. However when you go to pay your bill, check to see if a service charge has already been included.

At a hair salon, it's normal to tip your stylist 10 percent of the final price. You can also give €1-2 to the person who washed your hair, but this is optional. At a spa, you can tip 10 percent of the final cost for treatments like massages, body scrubs, or facials.

Luck Money

When in Ireland, you may run into the tradition of luck money. After you pay for something, the other person might hand you back a coin or small bill for good luck. In theory, this will ensure that you bring your business back to them. You can think of it like a reverse tip. This is less likely to happen at a hotel or restaurant, but it could happen when shopping at a market or at a family-owned shop.

PACK for a PURPOSE®

Small Space. Little Effort. Big Impact.

Philanthropy Pack for a Purpose

<https://www.packforapurpose.org/>

Responsible Travel – Give Back On Your Getaway

Pack for a Purpose is an organization with a mission to positively impact communities around the world by assisting travelers who want to take meaningful contributions to the destinations they visit.

Philosophy

There is need everywhere in the world; however, it is sometimes difficult to identify specific needs in places far from home. We believe many people fortunate enough to travel wish they could make meaningful contributions to help meet the needs of the places they visit. Such contributions are one way of expressing appreciation for the experiences and hospitality they enjoyed.

Our goal is to assist travelers who want to say thank you in this manner or who simply want to expand their generosity beyond their own communities. The supply lists for destinations on our website are provided directly by the local community-based projects that receive and use the supplies, enabling travelers to make informed decisions and to take items that meet the needs of those who will be using them.

MAKE YOUR TRAVELS MEANINGFUL

During this global pandemic, we must all practice responsible behavior. Now more than ever Packing for a Purpose will be a way to make a Big Impact where you travel.

You can make a Big Impact on communities around the world. Simply use a small amount of space in your luggage to pack supplies needed by community projects around the world.

Use available space in your luggage to provide supplies to communities you visit. For 5 pounds (2.27 kilos), you can bring one of the following:

- 400 pencils
- 5 deflated soccer balls with an inflation device
- A stethoscope, a blood pressure cuff and 500 band-aids
- Pet supplies

Who can use Pack for a Purpose?

All travelers can participate. Travelers and responsible tourists can add value to their vacations, honeymoons or business trips by using the information found at this link: <https://www.packforapurpose.org/participate/as-a-traveler/>.

When you choose to take needed supplies for community projects at your destination, the graciousness of your act not only enriches the local community but also enhances the joy of travel.

How do I participate?

Participation is easy! Below are the five steps.

1. Select your destination.
2. Find an accommodation or tour company and a project it supports.
3. Choose the supplies you wish to take from the specific items requested.
4. Drop off the supplies at the accommodation or tour company.
5. The supplies will then be delivered to the community-based project.

We also highly recommend that you consider making a monetary donation in support of Pack for a Purpose, which can be done on the Pack for a Purpose website.
