Today, they have created a generation of travelers who think nothing of hopping on the train after breakfast and relaxing in a Parisian bistro by lunchtime. Eurostar is delighted by the fact that they have doubled the number of visitors traveling from London to Paris and Brussels. Day 6

Musee du Louvre

Image credits: Pixabay

10:00 AM

Start Time

The Louvre museum exemplifies traditional French architecture since the Renaissance, and it houses a magnificent collection of ancient and Western art.

Walking through the Louvre Museum is like walking through the history of France and into the minds of kings and revolutionaries. The reigns of Louis XIII and Louis XIV saw major expansion and a linking of palaces and halls, which make up the museum today.

Divided into seven sections, the Louvre collections incorporate works dating from the birth of the great antique civilisations right up to the first half of the 19th century, thereby confirming its encyclopaedic vocation.

the present Louvre departments include Oriental (ancient Mesopotamian) antiquities; Egyptain antiquities; Geek and Roman antiquities: sculpture from the Middle ages to modern times: furniture and objects d'art: and paintings respresenting all the European schools. A section of the museum is devoted to Islamic art.

Among the thousands of priceless paintings is Leonardo Da Vinci's "Mona Lisa", probably the most famous painting in the world, housed in the Salle des Etats in a climate- controlled environment behind protective glass Works of artists like Fragonard, Rembrandt, Rubens, Titian, Poussin, and David can also be seen. One of the most famous sculptures in the collection is the "Venus de Milo".

The Musee de Louvre is unquestionably one of the finest museums in the world.
