About Boutique Travel Advisors

<https://travelbta.com/>

At Boutique Travel Advisors, we believe luxury travel goes beyond welcome chocolates on pillows & first-class seats. Luxury travel can be subjective. To us, the definition of luxury travel embodies having the privilege to explore & experience the infinitely possible wonderments the world has to offer when we decide to mindfully venture outside of our comfort zone in our home environment.

From booking bespoke safaris in South Africa, serenely scenic river cruises through France's waterways, to private wine (+ pasta) tastings on the Amalfi Coast... BTA strives to curate each personalized itinerary with credible expertise, dedicated service & the whole-hearted intention for each traveler to exceed their travel goals and expectations while on the adventure of a lifetime.

BTA is proudly a women-owned & run company. Co-owners and luxury travel curators, Janet Semenova and Angie Rice, use a thorough 5-step process to seamlessly design & tailor YOUR travel experience: explore, imagine, build, journey, reflect.

Your BTA travel itinerary is more than a document of scheduled flights, tours, and dinner reservations. It is the motherboard, the holy grail, the backbone of a transformational journey that turns your individual, subjective experiences into heart-warming, thought-provoking, jaw-dropping, life-changing memories that are worthy of being cherished for a lifetime.

Our purpose is to make your travel dreams come true... We are here to make your every step along the way uncomplicated, stress-free, and wildly exciting. All we ask is, where will your journey take you?

Testing Requirements for Passengers Boarding Flights Entering Portugal

- EU Digital Vaccination Certificate, or
- NAAT test within 72 hours. A negative SARS-CoV-2 lab result of a nucleic acid amplification test (NAAT), for example a PCR test, performed at least 72 hours before boarding, or
- TRAg test within 48 hours. A rapid antigen test (TRAg), performed within 48 hours of boarding

Passenger Locator Card must be completed and submitted. (Different airlines require completion of form before take-off. We advise completing and printing prior to scheduled travel)

Testing Requirements for Passengers Boarding Flights Entering US

Testing Requirement:

- A negative COVID-19 viral test taken within three calendar days of travel, or
- Provide documentation from a licensed health care provider of having recovered from COVID-19 in the 90 days preceding travel.
- Attestation confirming one of the two options above is true.

Quarantine Requirements

Travelers who test positive for COVID can be required to quarantine for up to 10 days. Due to increased instances of mandatory detention by health authorities, we do not recommend same day airport testing.

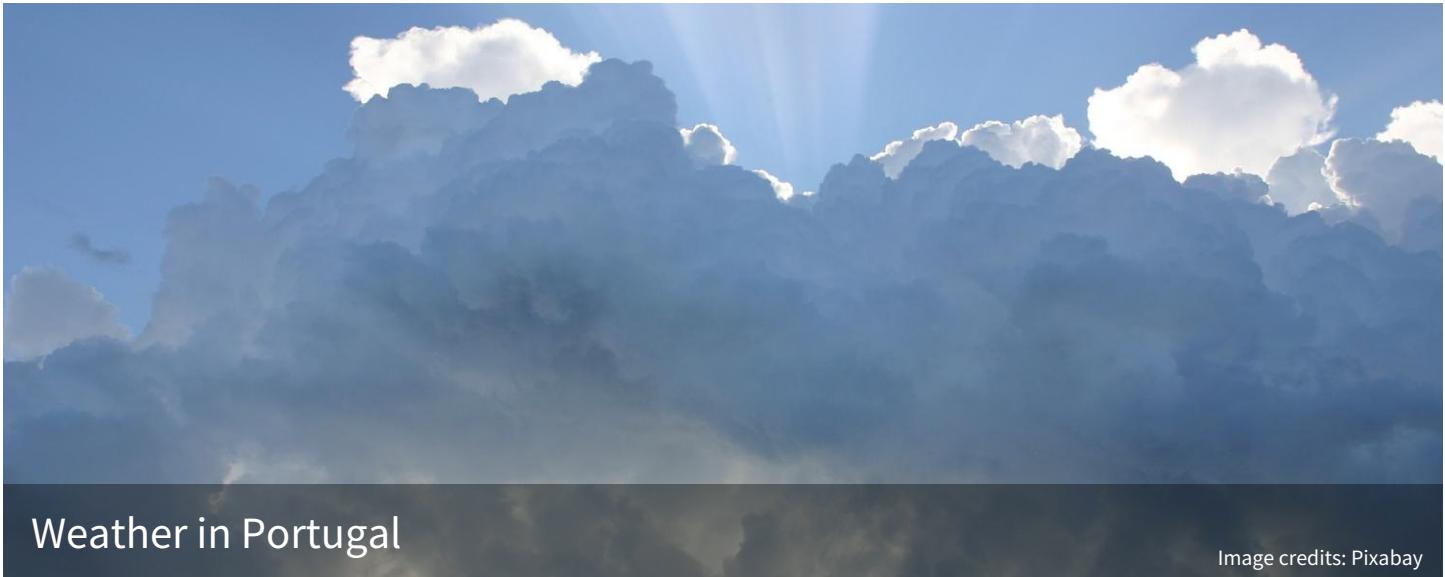

Accommodation Requirements

Proof of vaccination or Negative COVID Test required: Hotels, Guesthouses, and private vacation rentals (Airbnb, VRBO, etc.). One of the following is now required upon check-in:

Mandatory submission of an EU Digital Vaccination Certificate or

- A negative COVID test result (PCR 72 hours; antigen 48 hours; rapid test before health official 24 hours) or
- A rapid test immediately on arrival in front of an employee at offering hotels.

Please Note: Requirements change rapidly. It is your responsibility to confirm requirements with your airline, accommodations, and other events/activities before travel.

Tipping Recommendations Portugal

There is no obligation to tip at restaurants, hotels, bars, or spas in Portugal, but how much should you tip for exceptional service? Since it is not customary, there is no hard and fast rule about the amount that should be given in each circumstance. You, however, can't go wrong by leaving a little extra when service exceeds your expectations. This could be as simple as rounding up to the nearest euro.

When dining out, skip the tip at cheaper restaurants and leave up to 10 percent when service exceeds expectations in upscale dining establishments. Be aware, however, that some restaurants include service in the final bill, so keep an eye out for that language at the bottom of the receipt before tipping extra. It is common for servers not to receive tips included on a credit card, so try to leave cash whenever possible.

As for tipping other services, there is no set standard for how much to tip but a little goes a long way in showing appreciation. This Portugal tipping guide will help you navigate when/where you can leave a little extra for great service.

Cafe Server: If there is a tip jar, it's a nice gesture to leave the change. For exceptional table service, round up to the nearest €1.

Restaurant Server: It is not customary to tip at a cheaper restaurant, but a tip of up to 10 percent is acceptable at more upscale establishments. The tip is sometimes included in the final bill, but not always. Check the bill first for these inclusions before deciding what to tip. Servers sometimes don't receive tips included on a credit card, so always try to tip in cash whenever possible.

Bartender: It's not necessary to tip a bartender, but you can round up to the nearest €1 for exceptional service. Table service is considered to be separate than the bar, and it is considerate to round to the nearest €1 for great service.

Tour Guide: Have a wonderful time on your tour? Tip €5 to €10 per half-day tour and €10 to €15 for a full-day tour. If taking a free tour, tip at least €10, as this is the only way the guides make money.

Taxis: Tipping in Portugal taxis isn't expected, but is appreciated. A good rule of thumb is to round up to the nearest €5 or up to 10 percent of the final fare for outstanding service.

Airport Shuttle: It is not necessary to tip your driver, but feel free to give €1 per bag if they help with your luggage.

Doorman: Gratitude is always welcome when a doorman assists with luggage or hailing transportation. A simple thank you is appreciated, but feel free to offer €1 for extra help.

Bellhop: It is customary to tip €1 to €2 per bag, depending on size, but no more than €5.

Housecleaning: Feel free to leave €1 per night for a spotless stay.

Concierge: If the concierge goes above and beyond with helping you book reservations, giving you directions, and providing insider recommendations, it's considerate to tip €5 to €10.

Stylist: Tipping in Portugal is considerate, but not expected, so tip 5 to 10 percent of the final bill if you're satisfied with the results.

Spa Service Provider: A tip isn't expected, and may be refused, but you can leave up to 10 percent for anything that goes above and beyond your expectations.

Porto Introduction

Porto, Portugal's second-largest city, sits on the steep north bank of the Douro River, 195 mi/310 km north of Lisbon. It has an interesting port area and a nice, old-world feel to it, especially among the ochre and brown tenements stacked high on the slopes above the river. Porto's history predates the Roman occupation—in fact, Portugal took its name from the town.

There's a famous saying that sums up how the Portuguese feel about Porto (sometimes referred to as "Oporto"): "Coimbra sings, Braga prays, Lisbon shows off and Porto works." Porto dates back to the fourth century when Romans ruled the day. Over the centuries, Porto developed along the hills overlooking the Douro river estuary; even today, a city stroll along the steep streets can turn into quite a workout.

Notably, in 1996, Porto's historical Ribeira district was awarded World Heritage status by UNESCO. Porto was named the 2001 European City of Culture. To celebrate, the city opened a photography museum (housed in a 19th-century prison) and an orchestra hall, and the entire city received a thorough freshening-up.

For more information please see the Porto Guide in the "Guides" section of your travel app.

Day 3

Douro Valley Introduction

Traversing Portugal's wine country, the Douro River valley makes for a wonderful scenic drive—interesting villages with ancient churches line the way. In its lower reaches, the Douro carves a deep, meandering canyon between rounded hills that are spectacularly stepped and terraced. Not an inch of usable land is wasted.

Towns along the valley include Lamego (museum with early Christian art, Romanesque cathedral and 13th-century castle ruins), Pinhao (the center of the wine industry—some vineyards are open for sampling) and Sao Joao da Pesqueira (an isolated but lovely village). Among the examples of Romanesque and Cistercian architecture is the stunning Sao Joao de Tarouca monastery.

Branching off from the Douro Valley is the Coa Valley, the world's largest open-air rock art site with stunning examples of Paleolithic engravings in situ along the banks of the rivers and streams.

Nazare Introduction

Nazare, Portugal, is a picturesque if somewhat touristy fishing village 80 mi/130 km north of Lisbon. It is worth a visit of at least several hours, and you might prefer to stay overnight. There are Venetian-style fishing boats offshore, an interesting fish auction and one of the cleanest beaches in Europe (local women sift the sand).

The setting is most impressive: The lower part is the fishermen's quarter and beach area; the upper part is the sítio—a peninsula with magnificent high cliffs (it's where most of the residents live and can be reached by a funicular car from the beach). It's fun to spend time at the sítio just people-watching (the men wear distinctive stocking hats). If you need a destination, visit the Chapel of Memory, erected by a nobleman after a vision of the Virgin Mary warned him he was in danger of going over a cliff in a heavy fog.

Other activities in Nazare include eating lots of seafood, visiting the São Miguel Fort and attending the Festival of Nossa Senhora da Nazare Romaria (held in September, it features traditional folk dances). If you're staying in the village overnight, watch the fishermen row out to sea until nothing is visible but their bobbing lanterns. Another fishing village in the area is Peniche, Portugal's sardine capital. (May-October, there are several restaurants along the shoreline that grill the fresh catch.)

Just south of Nazare is the medieval walled town of Obidos, which has a medieval castle (now a pousada) and lovely whitewashed houses with flower-filled balconies.

LISBON, PORTUGAL

@TRAVELBTA

Lisbon Introduction

The hodgepodge of historical periods and cultures represented in Lisbon, Portugal, is a major source of its charm and travel appeal. A sprawling city on the banks of the Tagus River, Lisbon constantly reminds travelers that Portugal has been conquered several times, that it developed (and lost) its own illustrious empire and that, for much of the 20th century, it isolated itself from the rest of the world. But when Portugal joined the European Union in 1986, it experienced a major economic boost.

A completely new quarter sprang up on the banks of the Tagus. Lisbon is modernizing fast as a European travel destination. As visitors to Portugal walk Lisbon's hills—or, better, take one of Lisbon's vintage trams—they'll find restored medieval facades, wonderful art-nouveau buildings, black-and-white mosaic sidewalks (known as calcada), fine museums and plenty of modern shops. Lisbon's citizens seem to have absorbed their city's many-sided character.

Visitors can witness the popularity of fado, the melancholy music that developed in Lisbon in the early-19th century. Though the performers sing about tragedy and distant glory, the audience is very much a part of modern Lisbon—a flourishing, fashionable business and leisure center.

Sintra and Cascais Day Trip from Lisbon

Lisbon hotel pick up

The guide will meet you at your hotel in Lisbon to begin the Sintra and Cascais Tour. While heading west (40m trip), hear the whole story behind the magic Sintra and how, in the 19th-century, became the center of European romanticism architecture.

Pena Palace: Private guided tour inside

Once you get to Sintra, enjoy a mystical drive by its forested hillsides. At the top, walk the Pena Park (optional - shuttle available) and visit the palace with your private guide, making history come alive with historical knowledge and court intrigues of ancient times.

Explore Sintra Old Town

After, you will have the chance to explore Sintra Old Town and taste some local delicacies like the "queijadas" and "travesseiros" (pastry). You can take your time walking its cobblestoned narrow streets, full of little shops with traditional Portuguese products.

Cabo da Roca (Cape Roca): Hilltop oceanviews

You will then continue to the westernmost point of Europe, the Cabo da Roca (Cape Roca), where "the land ends and the sea begins".

Cascais bay for a fresh seafood lunch

On the way to Cascais, you will then pass the Guincho beach. Take a slow stroll around the charming bay of Cascais with its beach, have lunch (own expense) and enjoy the surrounding coastline.

Lisbon hotel drop off

Your day trip ends with a return to Lisbon through the gorgeous Estoril coast.

SINTRA, PORTUGAL

Sintra Introduction

Easily meriting a day's exploration, Sintra, Portugal, offers castles, palaces, formal gardens and stately homes scattered about the green hills of the area. Located 15 mi/25 km northwest of Lisbon, Sintra is near some fine Atlantic beaches. In the center of town, visit the huge Palacio Nacional de Sintra (royal palace), known for its splendid azulejos.

Also drive or take a tour up to the nearby rocky hilltop to see the whimsical castle known as Palacio da Pena. Built in the 19th century as a private playground for Queen Maria II, it's an amazing—purists would say appalling—mixture of Gothic, Arabic and Renaissance architecture. (In its defense, there are good views from the top.)
