About Boutique Travel Advisors

At Boutique Travel Advisors, we believe luxury travel goes beyond welcome chocolates on pillows & first-class seats. Luxury travel can be subjective. To us, the definition of luxury travel embodies having the privilege to explore & experience the infinitely possible wonderments the world has to offer when we decide to mindfully venture outside of our comfort zone in our home environment.

From booking bespoke safaris in South Africa, serenely scenic river cruises through France's waterways, to private wine (+ pasta) tastings on the Amalfi Coast... BTA strives to curate each itinerary with credible expertise, dedicated service & the whole-hearted intention for each traveler to exceed their travel goals and expectations while on the adventure of a lifetime.

BTA is proudly a women-owned & run company. Co-owners and luxury travel curators, Janet Semenova and Angie Rice, are dedicated to a thorough 5-step process for connecting with clients, both as client-to-expert and traveler-to-traveler, to design a seamlessly tailored travel plan.

Your BTA travel itinerary is more than a document of scheduled flights, tours, and dinner reservations. It is the motherboard, the holy grail, the backbone of a journey that turns unique experiences into eye-widening, jaw-dropping, life-changing moments that will evolve into memories worthy of being cherished for a lifetime.

Our purpose is to make your travel dreams come true... All we ask is, where will your journey take you?

Lisbon Introduction

The hodgepodge of historical periods and cultures represented in Lisbon, Portugal, is a major source of its charm and travel appeal. A sprawling city on the banks of the Tagus River, Lisbon constantly reminds travelers that Portugal has been conquered several times, that it developed (and lost) its own illustrious empire and that, for much of the 20th century, it isolated itself from the rest of the world. But when Portugal joined the European Union in 1986, it experienced a major economic boost.

A completely new quarter sprang up on the banks of the Tagus. Lisbon is modernizing fast as a European travel destination. As visitors to Portugal walk Lisbon's hills—or, better, take one of Lisbon's vintage trams—they'll find restored medieval facades, wonderful art-nouveau buildings, black-and-white mosaic sidewalks (known as calcada), fine museums and plenty of modern shops. Lisbon's citizens seem to have absorbed their city's many-sided character.

Visitors can witness the popularity of fado, the melancholy music that developed in Lisbon in the early-19th century. Though the performers sing about tragedy and distant glory, the audience is very much a part of modern Lisbon—a flourishing, fashionable business and leisure center.

Standard Meet and Greet Procedures: The guests pick-up their own luggage and the driver will meet them: Depending on the airplane landing site, the guest will head out towards the exit, they will eventually pass luggage claim, and customs. Right after customs there is an automatic door and just in front there is a zone appointed just for hostess or tourism professionals with the airport signs. In this same spot the guests will arrange with driver (that will hold a name sign) if they meet at the end of the right hand side or left hand side ramp and will be escorted to the vehicles. The vehicles don't always park on the same spot, depends much on the airport traffic. Fredbus manages to advise driver's contacts the day before, but you or your guests may reach us 24/7 at +351 21 387 77 80.

Welcome Experience: Bottle Water.

Luggage is limited to 1 bag (size 3.3' x 2') + 1 personal carry-on per person. Personal carry-on pieces may be no larger than a purse, backpack or briefcase. A Smaller luggage pieces that fit in airline overhead compartments must be counted as an additional piece of luggage, not as a carry-on. For excess or oversize luggage, book vehicles as necessary. Luggage is not allowed inside the car or on the seats for safety reasons.

Classic suggests calling Fredbus Transporte de Passageiros Lda at 011 35 121 387 7780 to reconfirm your service at least 24-48 hours prior. If calling from abroad, dial +35 121 387 7780. ### Half-Day Lisbon tour and cooking class

Guide + Separate Driver

This private half-day tour of Lisbon's highlights includes most of the sights of interest along with a well balanced combination of driving and walking and offers a comprehensive view of the city, including its main monument: the Jeronimos Monastery.

See the main sights without wasting tour time parking! This tour has separate guide and driver. You are dropped off / picked up close to the sites of interest and your guide is always with you at sights.

Start your private Lisbon half-day tour with a convenient pick up at your Lisbon hotel. You'll head to Alfama, the oldest district of Lisbon and one of the most typical, once the Moorish and Jewish quarter. There, you will see its 12th-century Cathedral (Sé), before continuing on to a magnificent viewpoint overlooking the medieval district, Saint George Castle, Lisbon and the Tagus river.

You then travel up to Belem, emblematic district of the Portuguese Discoveries. With your guide, you will visit the church of the Jeronimos Monastery and stop for photos and guide notes at the Tower of Belém and the majestic Monument to the Discoveries. Also, don't miss the chance to taste the delicious and one-of-a-kind "Pastéis de Belém" (Belém Pastery - own expense).

This panoramic tour with dedicated live guide will pass the heart of Lisbon - Avenida da Liberdade, Restauradores, Rossio Square and Pombaline Downtown - where you'll get to know the Lisbon Great Earthquake 1755 details.

Cooking Class includes dinner (you will cook your own dinner)

Meeting Point

Hotel entrance

Meet your guide at your hotel in Lisbon, where you will be picked up to begin your Sintra day trip. While heading west (40m trip), you will know the whole story behind the magic of Sintra.

Once you get to Sintra, you will be driven by its forested hillsides, enjoying a mystical walk into the depths of the Pena Park (optional). At the top, your guide will go inside the Pena Palace with you.

After, you will have the chance to explore Sintra Old Town and taste some local delicacies like the "queijadas" and "travesseiros" (pastry). You can take your time walking its cobblestoned narrow streets, full of little shops with traditional Portuguese products.

You will then continue to the westernmost point of Europe, the Cabo da Roca (Cape of Roca), where "the land ends and the sea begins".

You will then pass the Guincho beach on the way to Cascais. Take a slow stroll around the charming bay of Cascais with its beach, have lunch (own expense) and enjoy the surrounding coastline.

Your day trip to Sintra and Cascais will end with a return to Lisbon through the Estoril coast.

Bistro 100 Maneiras

Chef's Table Experience

"Bistrot", some call it, with French accent. 100 Maneiras, others, forgetting that is the Bistro in its name that gives it part of its identity. Bistro means "clean and clear" in Serbian. "Clean and clear" the ideas, the food, the space. Here, it's served comfort food, with a choice made à la carte, with creations designed from the traditional Portuguese, "Yugoslavian", French and Italian gastronomy, with an author's touch and inspirations brought from the travels, experiences and tastes of Ljubomir Stanisic. Without pre-arranged limits. From foie gras to testicles, from shellfish to game, from "luxury" products to less known ones. A menu that includes suggestions to share, a section for the "brave", seasonal dishes, successes that refuse to leave the table regardless of the season and, of course, an inevitable happy (and sweet) ending.

Happy, too, are the suggestions coming out of Bistro's bar, winner of the national 2017 Coaster Award for "Best Restaurant in a Bar". Given annually in the World Class competition, the most prestigious cocktail competition in the world, the Coaster Awards recognize the daily work at the best cocktail bars.

Transfer and Tour Lisbon - Obidos - Porto

Private Transfer Lisbon to Porto with stop in Obidos

Obidos is considered to be one of the finest examples of a Portuguese walled town. Historically, Obidos was presented to the Queen of Portugal on her wedding day, a tradition that began with Queen Urraca in 1214 and continued until the 19th century. This royal patronage has left an enduring legacy of pride within the town, and today it is one of the most characterful towns of central Portugal. Walk along the narrow-cobbled streets, traditional painted houses, and an imposing medieval castle.

Day 7

Porto Basic Information

Image credits: Pixabay

Porto, Portugal's second-largest city, sits on the steep north bank of the Douro River, 195 mi/310 km north of Lisbon. It has an interesting port area and a nice, old-world feel to it, especially among the ochre and brown tenements stacked high on the slopes above the river. Porto's history predates the Roman occupation—in fact, Portugal took its name from the town.

There's a famous saying that sums up how the Portuguese feel about Porto (sometimes referred to as "Oporto"): "Coimbra sings, Braga prays, Lisbon shows off and Porto works." Porto dates back to the fourth century when Romans ruled the day. Over the centuries, Porto developed along the hills overlooking the Douro river estuary; even today, a city stroll along the steep streets can turn into quite a workout.

Notably, in 1996, Porto's historical Ribeira district was awarded World Heritage status by UNESCO. Porto was named the 2001 European City of Culture. To celebrate, the city opened a photography museum (housed in a 19th-century prison) and an orchestra hall, and the entire city received a thorough freshening-up.

Private Duoro Valley Tour - Full Day Hotel Pick Up

See and taste the best of Portugal's Douro Valley on this guided tour from Porto. The Douro Valley is a magnificent region classified as a UNESCO World Heritage site and known for the production of its famous Port wine. Choose from lunch in a local winery, a picnic in the vineyards, or lunch (own expense) at a DOC restaurant run by a top chef of the area.

Take a Rabelo cruise in the heart of the Douro Valley on a traditional boat used for centuries to transport Port wine to the cellars in Vila Nova de Gaia. All transportation is in a comfortable, luxury van, or convertible car.

Begin your tour of the Douro Valley region with convenient pickup at your Porto hotel at 9:30am.

The itinerary for the 9-hour day will reflect the interests of the group. Depart for Pinhão, passing through scenic countryside and stopping at impressive viewpoints on the way.

Tour the International City of Vine and Wine, Peso da Régua, and Mesão Frio, then travel along the Douro River to Pinhão. Visit the railway station, where you can see the painted tile walls decorated with regional murals. Stop at a wine estate to taste the DOC Douro wines and Port. Choose to have a picnic in the vineyards or lunch in a traditional restaurant, then embark on a 1-hour Rabelo cruise on a traditional boat. At the conclusion of your 9-hour day (approx.), you'll get dropped off back at your Porto hotel.

Included:

- 9-hour tour of the Douro Valley Transportation in a luxury van
- River cruise on a traditional boat

London Introduction

@TRAVELBTA

Experience London, one of the multicultural capitals of the world! Over the years, this iconic European city has evolved into a rich melting pot of diversity. Art, culture and cuisine thrive brilliantly in this home to over 8 million, offering international flair while maintaining a distinct British quality. Visit one of the many free entry museums, go to the theater, or see the city from atop the London Eye to make your stay truly special.

If you're visiting London, England, for the first time, you may arrive expecting a European city that overflows with pomp and pageantry. Few visitors to London will fail to be impressed by the grandeur and craftsmanship of such monumental sights as Westminster Abbey or St. Paul's Cathedral, but that's just the historical foundation of today's modern, vibrant city. Cosmopolitan London has every visitor attraction from Bengali markets to designer boutiques to world-class art exhibitions to hand-written Beatles lyrics at the British Library.

London offers the best of British food, fashion and cultural pursuits, but its multicultural population gives it an international flair, as well. London has a lively mix of languages, dress, festivals and bustling street life. As for sightseeing, visitors to London can admire orchids at Kew Gardens, gaze on the crown jewels at the Tower of London, learn about millennia of history at the British Museum and witness spectacular views of the city from the London Eye Ferris wheel—all in a day. An interest in the arts or royalty may be what draws you to the capital of England, but you don't have to be an avid theatergoer or a history buff to enjoy yourself thoroughly. Sporting and cultural events take place across the capital, showing off this festive city at its best. London is a place you will want to visit again and again, and each time you visit, the city will have something new to offer.
