Day 2

Optional: Hike Camelback Mountain or Piestewa Peak

Camelback Mountain has two spectacular trails, both require some endurance to complete, or you can opt to partially hike either trail. The beauty of staying at the Phoenician is that you are less than a 15 minute walk from the Cholla Trailhead. Read up on both trails, as the Echo Canyon Trailhead is the favored hike. I would take a short Uber ride if you choose this trail, as parking is a challenge.

Piestewa Peak, at 2,610 feet is the second highest point in the Phoenix Mountains, after Camelback Mountain, and the third highest in the city of Phoenix, Arizona. It is located in the Piestewa Peak Recreation Area within the Phoenix Mountain Preserve, near Piestewa Parkway.

Our exclusive Broken Arrow and Scenic Rim Combo Tour has it all, including winding, unpaved back roads that will have you holding on tight during your journey. This is an experience you'll surely remember. Start the day by meeting your Certified Interpretive Guide at the Pink® Jeep® Tour Plaza in Sedona, where you'll hop into a custom-built, open-air Pink® Jeep® Wrangler. Head up Schnebly Hill Road to see towering red rock formations and picturesque views. It was also a filming location for "Johnny Guitar" (1954, Republic Pictures), a movie that starred Hollywood icon Joan Crawford. As soon as you hit the trail, you'll discover what our vehicles do best—crawl over desert rocks to the most remote areas around Sedona. Hairpin turns, steep cliffs and blind curves await as your Jeep climbs through canyons and washes. The Mogollon Rim is just above you, while the city of Sedona is nestled far below. Then it's on to Sedona's famous Broken Arrow trail, and only Pink® Jeep® Tours can take you there. Some of Hollywood's most beloved westerns were filmed here, including Jimmy Stewart's "Broken Arrow" (1950, 20th Century Fox). A panorama of towering rock spires and unique geological formations gives you a grand sense of scale. Along the way, look skyward to spy Sedona's White Line; it's famous amongst thrill-seeking mountain bikers for the seemingly impossible path along a cliff face. The tour's grand finale is The Road of No Return. Hang on as your guide uses superior all-terrain driving skills to navigate rocks, ruts and roots on your way to the bottom of this exciting descent. Weave your way through the Coconino National Forest and before heading back into the city. If you're ready to take on the rugged beauty of Sedona's backcountry, this combo tour is the perfect adventure for you. We're sure that the scenery and thrills will have you ready for another ride with Pink® Jeep® Tours in no time.

Scottsdale is known for its shopping. You are just a 5 minute drive from Scottsdale Fashion Park. Link to directions. For an outdoor ambience, I would head further north and check out Kierland Commons and Scottsdale Q, which are on the left and right side of Scottsdale Road. You can walk from one mall to the other. My favorite restaurants on the way to this area are Suma Maya and Roka Akor, or you can check out some wine bars that also serve food while shopping, including Sorso or Postino's.
