Departure at 9:00 AM from your hotel and transfer to San Gimignano. San Gimignano is famous for its fascinating medieval architecture and towers that rise above all the other buildings offering an impressive view of the city from the surrounding valley. At the height of its glory, the town had 72 tower-houses as symbols of wealth and power. Although only 14 have survived, San Gimignano still retains its feudal atmosphere and appearance. You will have about 2hrs at disposal to walk through the town.

1.00 PM - After the visit, you will be transferred (about 15 min) to Palagetto Winery. You will be able to experience the wonders of wine making which you will be able to taste at the end of the visit including vinsanto and grappa. After the visit, you will have lunch in either a medieval tavern or in an ancient tower. The visit and the lunch last about 2 hours.

After lunch, transfer to Castello Banfi.
