Day of Leisure

Day at leisure to explore on your own.

Paris Self Guided Things To Do For Families - BTA Guide

Image credits: Maria Benitez on Unsplash

Families visiting Paris will find plenty of activities to keep everyone entertained. One must-see destination is Montmartre, located in the 18th arrondissement. This hilltop village is well known for its basilica and cobbled streets lined with artists' galleries, cafes and bistros. Kids will love exploring the Sacre Coeur, which offers stunning views of Paris from its steps. This Roman Catholic church is a popular tourist destination due to its stunning architecture and scenery. The Sacré Coeur was built in 1876-1879, and is dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

Another great spot is the medieval Marais district, with its narrow streets and quaint shops.

The charming boutiques of the Marais district are full of Parisian fashion, while the nearby farmers' markets offer fresh produce and handmade items. For those looking for something special, the flea markets at St-Ouen offer antiques and one-of-a-kind pieces. No matter what your family is looking for, Paris has something to suit everyone's tastes!

The Luxembourg Gardens is another Paris favorite, with its green lawns, flower beds and chestnut trees. Kids can play on the merry-go-round while parents relax in nearby cafes or take a leisurely stroll around the grounds.

The Tuileries Gardens is another must-stop spot for families. There is a lot of space to run around, and there are plenty of activities for kids to enjoy. It is located between the Louvre and Place de la Concorde and is a particularly vibrant destination. Kids can explore the formal gardens, run through fountains and ride on the carousels. They can also enjoy live music performances during summer or visit the nearby toy store for some Parisian souvenirs.

The Left Bank of Paris is home to many iconic sites, such as Notre Dame Cathedral and the Latin Quarter. Sorbonne university and some of Paris' oldest bookshops are also located here. Check out the street performers along Rue de la Huchette or explore the surrounding bookshops and cafes. Families can also visit one of Paris' many parks for outdoor fun, like Parc des Buttes Chaumont or Jardin des Plantes.

Paris is an ideal destination for families visiting Europe. With its iconic monuments, gorgeous parks, quaint cafes and shops and a wide variety of activities, Paris offers something for everyone. From exploring Montmartre or the Luxembourg Gardens to shopping in the Marais, we hope you enjoy your day of leisure.

Day 4

Private Eiffel Tower & Paris River Cruise Family Tour

Meeting Point

5 Avenue de Suffren, 75007 Paris. In front of Le Castel Café.
Closest metro stations: Bir-Hakeim (line 6) and Champ de Mars (RER C)

Enjoy views from the first level to the top floor.

On the second floor, you'll enjoy panoramic views of the capital as well as of the Champ de Mars located just below the Eiffel Tower. This level has a transparent walkway 187 feet above the ground, which has the power to surprise! You will then take an elevator to the summit, located at a height of 377 feet. Take in the stunning view before you, a 360° panorama which allows you to see all of Paris's landmarks: the Sacré-Cœur on the Butte Montmartre, the Invalides with its golden dome, the Tour Montparnasse, and the Arc de Triomphe overlooking the beautiful Champs-Elysées.

Access to the top floor of the Eiffel Tower. Once there, you will experience unique views of all of Paris, from a height of 905 feet. Apart from the monuments already mentioned, you will also be able to spot other important sites, such as the Louvre, the Musée d'Orsay, La Grande Arche de la Défense and the historic bridges over the Seine.

Get the opportunity to have the Seine river cruise ticket and do it whenever you like. Taking a cruise on the Seine is synonymous with treating yourself to a truly magical and timeless moment. Step aboard at the Eiffel Tower as the crew welcomes you for an hour-long cruise along the Seine on a trimaran from the Bateaux Parisiens fleet. Admire the exquisite architecture of the heart of Paris's most prestigious monuments along the banks of the Seine: Louvre Museum, Notre Dame Cathedral, Orsay Museum, Conciergerie...Listen to the fascinating commentary and enjoy the music as you float along.

In the morning, meet your fully licenced private your in the lobby of your hotel. Your chauffeur will drive you to Versailles.

Exploring The Palace Of Versailles & Cycling Tour

Follow your guide as he/she takes you inside this iconic palace and through the King's State Apartments to witness its grandeur.

With a fun-filled game booklet in hand, discovering the Palace of Versailles and learning about the Kings of France has never been so much fun for the children. Once outside, you will enjoy a guided visit of the Palace's gardens. After lunch, hop on your bicycles and let your guide take you to the other parts of the area, including the Trianon and Queen Marie Antoinette's Hamlet. This visit of Versailles will surely be one of the highlights of your family vacation in Paris.

At the end of your activity, your chauffeur will drive you back to your hotel.

Day 6

Private Saint Germain Chocolate & Pastry Walking Tour

Meet your gourmet guide at the designated meeting point and depart on your tour.

Saint-Germain-des-Près, located on the left bank of Paris, has established quite a reputation over the years. Home to French intelligentsia, many expatriates also choose to settle in this neighborhood which still thrives nowadays with book shops, boutiques, jazz clubs, restaurants, cafés.

SaintGermain-des-Près is also considered the Parisian capital of chocolate therefore ideal for a chocolate and bakery walking tour. Your guide will take you along the animated streets of this typical Parisian area and make the best selection of chocolate shops or boutiques and bakeries for you to indulge. Find out where the cacao bean originates from and how each chocolate maker has his personal way of transforming it into melting chocolate sweets and even amazing works of art.

Stop by some famous bakeries and find out why French bread and pastries are a reference in the world. Your guide will also “fill you up” with lots of historical facts and anecdotes. No stay in Paris would be complete without exploring this extremely quaint and chic area.

A little bit of advice: if you take this tour in the morning just make sure you don't have a huge breakfast. After your tour, you will make your own way back to your accommodation.

"A secret garden in Aix-en-Provence" The Hotel Le Piganet is an enchanting escape in the heart of Aix-en-Provence. This elegant Provence bastide combines the 18th century warmth with a contemporary style in order to offer guests a pure delight of charm and peacefulness, where the heaven's doors are always opened. And imagine admiring the majestic Sainte-Victoire Mountain as through the eyes of the renowned painter Paul Cézanne. The beautiful garden remains a real place to live where regular guests, guests on holidays or people from the city, play the traditional "pétanque", enjoy the swimming pool or savor southern cuisine dishes, at the restaurant La Table du Piganet. Take a stroll around this marvelous garden. The magic and peaceful atmosphere makes you believe you are not in the heart of the city. This haven of peace is lined up with century chestnut trees, a blooming arcade with roses of a thousand colors. Le Piganet currently brings Aix locals and tourists from around the globe together via fine dining and music. Traditions and modern art de vivre are rolled into one, making the hotel an ideal base for touring the south. It is also a destination in itself. Relax to the sound of the water features and walk in Paul Cézanne's footsteps. No need to go far to escape as you explore the delightful sections one after another.

Self Touring - Monaco and Monte Carlo

Monaco is situated on the Cote d'Azur, between Cap d'Ail and Menton, only a few kilometers from the Italian Riviera. It is one of those magical, glamorous places of worldwide renown. Monaco is a prosperous, independent sovereign state with its own government. The head of state is His Royal Highness Prince Albert II. Monaco definitely has a privileged location. This tiny capital (nicknamed the Rock) is built into the mountainside and spreads down to the shores of the Riviera. 31 hectares have been added to Monaco's surface by building out onto the water.

It is sunny almost all year round, and fabulous parks and gardens have been laid out throughout the city. There are sumptuous boutiques with the latest fashions, palatial luxury hotels, and very chic restaurants. The cultural and sport centers are fitted out to perfection, and everywhere you look, stretch-limousines and Porsches travel along Monte Carlo's famous twisting streets. You can visit the Prince's Palace, which was built on the site of a 13th-century Genovese fortress. Admire the splendor of the 16th-century Italian Gallery, the Louis XV lounge, and the 17th-century Palatine Chapel. Do not miss the Oceanographic Museum that was inaugurated by Prince Albert I in 1910. Inside you will discover an amazing collection of marine life, and you will be seduced by the numerous aquariums filled with colorful fish.

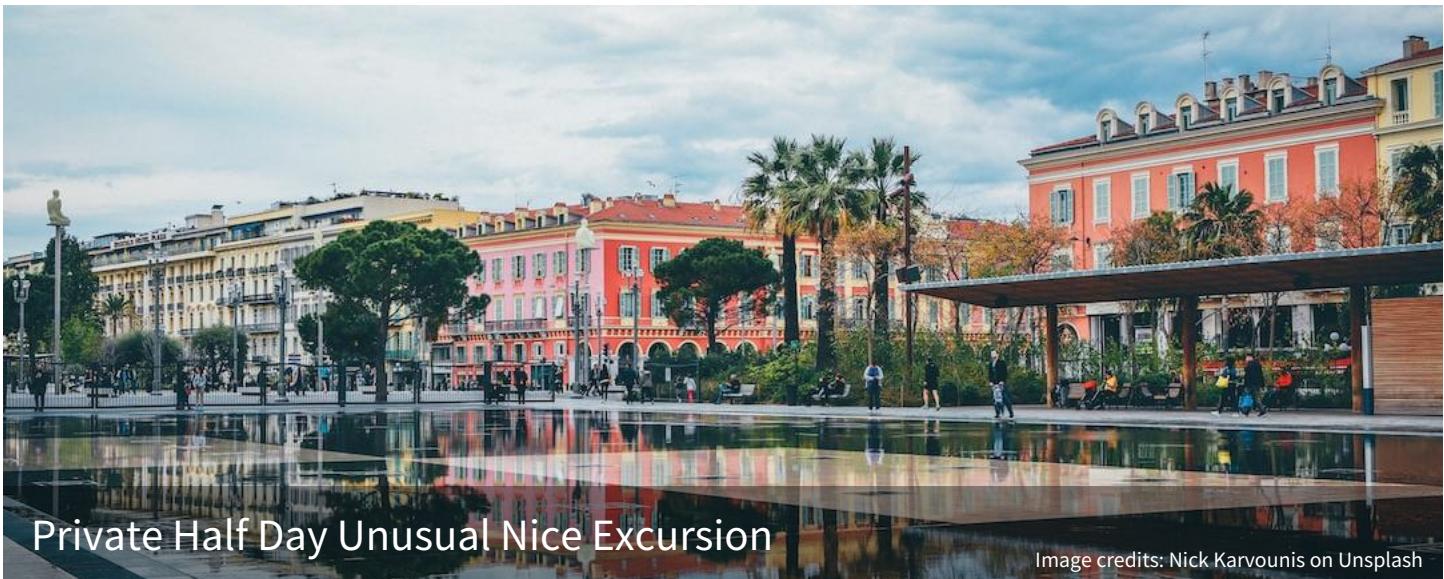

The Monte Carlo Casino is a prestigious "Belle Époque" style casino in Monaco, on the French Riviera.

Built in 1863, overlooking the sea, the Monte Carlo Casino has seen the writing finest hours of Monte Carlo. The current building was designed in 1879 by Charles Garnier.

The Monte Carlo Casino is located in the heart of Monaco, next to the Hotel de Paris Monte -Carlo.

It is surrounded by gardens and has a terrace where the view extends over the Mediterranean and Monaco at the forefront of Bordighera in Italy.

The Casino is also home to the "Opéra de Monte-Carlo", whose outstanding seasons come in a dazzling decor.
