Welcome to Lake Como

Today you will arrive in Lake Como

Area Overview

One need not be an A-list celebrity to feel at home in Lake Como. About an hour's drive north of Milan, Italy's Lake District is dominated by Como. And there's a reason for that. The banks of this finger-shaped body of water are home to opulent old-school hotels, medieval towns, and Renaissance-era palaces.

Moneyed locals weave their Italian sports cars along the winding, lakeside roads heading to towns like Bellagio or waterfront villas and palaces. Restaurants serve freshly caught lake fish (along with things like gold-flaked risotto). And plus-sized boats cruise the lake with confidence.

But it's not all glamor and celebrity gossip on Lake Como. There are sleepy fishing villages, salt-of-the-earth trattorias serving hearty and rustic fare, and taxi boats for the 99 percent to travel from one seaside village to the other. Plus, the surrounding verdant mountains are etched with hiking paths that allow visitors to see a different side of the region: not just great views of the lake but off-the-radar villages and towns that posh and pampered may never see.

Welcome to The Dolomites

Today you will arrive in The Dolomites

Area Overview

This mountain chain in Northern Italy looks like something out of a fantasy novel. Jagged, sharp, pointy, and often snow covered, the Dolomites are spread out over several regions. In the winter, people come here for the great skiing. In the summer, they come to hike. But really, neither is really necessary to be riveted by these mountains. Just driving around, stopping in mountain villages and towns for the night or to eat northern Italian fare is enough to be absolutely wowed by the Dolomites.

Because the mountain chain hugs up against Austria and Switzerland, much of the culture of the area has a decidedly teutonic feel to it—as if Italy and Germany somehow got married. Much of the population speaks Italian and German. You'll find more butter in the food than olive oil. And beer is often more popular than wine. And yoedling is a regional pastime.

Welcome to Milan

Today you will arrive in Milan

Area Overview

The fashion, finance, design, and media hub of Italy, Milan is a powerhouse of a metropolis in northern Italy. With the wealth of stunning cities scattered around Italy, the capital of the Lombardy region tends to get passed by or dismissed by the traveler.

And yet, this city of 1.3 million people has so much going for it. Especially when it comes to the traveler. Like opera? The world's most famous opera house, La Scala, is here. Gothic architecture? Milan Cathedral, otherwise known as Il Duomo in the local parlance, is one of the most spectacular churches on the planet. How about Renaissance-era art? Leonardo da Vinci's famed "Last Supper" is awaiting you.

These things alone make Milan very worthy of a visit. But there's so much more—even beyond the obvious fashion, upscale dining, and nightlife, all of which there is a plethora of here. Milan also has a series of restaurant-and-cafe-lined canals. It has incredible street art in the Isola neighborhood. And it has the aptly named Fondazione Prada, a fantastic contemporary art museum, designed by star Dutch architect Rem Koolhaas.

CONFIRMATION OF SERVICES

A non-refundable itinerary design fee is required to begin the planning process. Typically, a non-refundable deposit is required at the time of booking to secure custom travel components.

The deposit amount will be specified at the time of booking and varies depending on the supplier's Terms and Conditions.

The client understands that BTA's Terms and Conditions may vary from those of cruise lines, land operators, airlines, hotels, and other travel companies involved in your trip. All applicable Terms and Conditions shall be enforced.

PAYMENT METHOD:

Payments may be made by the following methods:

- Credit card
- Bank transfer

Travelers are liable for all bank and related transaction charges. Some suppliers may charge additional credit card processing fees. These fees are strictly the responsibility of the traveler.

CREDIT CARD MERCHANT:

We also strongly recommend that you use a credit card for your purchase, so that you can exercise your rights under the Fair Credit Billing Act if you do not receive the services you purchased. However, if we are the credit card merchant, our role is to facilitate the sale, collect funds on your behalf, and remit those funds to the Suppliers. If the Suppliers do not provide the services, your only recourse would be against the Suppliers, and you agree not to initiate a chargeback against us.

FLIGHT PREPARATION:

BTA recommends that you check your flight for any changes at least 48 hours before departure and check in before arrival at the airport when possible. We recommend that you arrive at the airport 3 hours before traveling internationally and at least 2 hours before flying domestically. BTA is not liable for any travel interruption or disruption.

RISKS OF TRAVEL AND TRAVEL RELEASE:

BTA assumes no responsibility for and shall not be liable for the acts or omissions on the part of any other party not under our control or any acts of God, unsafe conditions, terrorism, health hazards including pandemics, illness, weather hazards, or the suitability for a disabled person of any portion of any trip. We have no special knowledge of dangers during travel or at destinations.

For information related to such hazards, we recommend you visit the State Department travel website at www.travel.state.gov, click on "Find International Travel Information," then click on "Country Information," and fill in the name of the destination country.

For medical and health information, we recommend you visit the Centers for Disease Control website at www.cdc.gov/travel, then click on "Destinations" and scroll to the destination country's name. It is your personal decision to travel, and you are doing so with full knowledge of current travel recommendations and travel restrictions regarding the risks of COVID-19 or any other pandemic.

FORCE MAJEURE:

Force majeure means unusual and unforeseeable circumstances beyond BTA's control or the control of our suppliers, the consequence of which neither BTA nor its suppliers could avoid even with all due care, including, but not limited to, war, threat of war, riot, civil strife, terrorist activity (actual or threatened), industrial dispute, unavoidable technical problems with transport, machinery or equipment, power failure, changes imposed by rescheduling or cancellation of flights by an airline, natural or nuclear disaster, fire, flood, drought, adverse weather conditions, epidemics or outbreaks of illness and level of water in rivers.

In the event of a cancellation or material alteration to the trip as a result of the circumstances as described in this clause, BTA may, in their sole and absolute discretion: a) offer the traveler (s) alternative travel arrangements or products of comparable standard as may be appropriate in the circumstances; or b) if BTA does not offer alternative travel arrangements or products, BTA will make every effort to obtain a prompt proportional refund of monies paid by the traveler to the suppliers.

YOU HEREBY EXPRESSLY ASSUME ALL OF THESE RISKS AND DANGERS, AND YOU HEREBY EXPRESSLY AGREE TO RELEASE FOREVER, DISCHARGE, AND HOLD US, AND OUR AGENTS, EMPLOYEES, OFFICERS, DIRECTORS, ASSOCIATES, AFFILIATED COMPANIES, GUIDES, GROUP LEADERS, AND SUBCONTRACTORS HARMLESS AGAINST ANY AND ALL LIABILITY, ACTIONS, CAUSES OF ACTIONS, SUITS, CLAIMS, AND DEMANDS OF ANY AND EVERY KIND AND NATURE WHATSOEVER WHICH YOU NOW HAVE OR WHICH MAY HEREAFTER ARISE OUT OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH THESE RISKS AND DANGERS.

CLAIMS DEADLINE AND EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION:

You agree to present any claims against us within 30 days after your travels end and to file suit within one year of the incident, and you acknowledge that this expressly limits the applicable statute of limitations to one year.
