Day 2

Private City Tour of Lima

Transfer to Parque del Amor, located in Malecon Cisneros in Miraflores, which was inaugurated in February of 1993 on the "Day of Love", and whose central part exhibits a beautiful sculpture carved by Peruvian artist Victor Delfin, dedicated to love and whose name is "The Kiss". The park also offers a magnificent view of the Pacific Ocean.

Proceed then to the heart of Miraflores and enjoy a panoramic view of the archaeological site of Huaca Pucllana that operated between centuries V - VIII AD.

Next visit the Historic Center of Lima, and enjoy the Capital of Peru and its 2000 years of history and colonial wealth. Admire the Plaza Mayor, which has important architectural monuments and buildings, like the Archbishop of Lima with its elegant balconies, the Government Palace and its magnificent bronze fountain dating from 1650.

Continue to the convent of San Francisco, a masterpiece of colonial architecture where you can appreciate the beauty of its monastic cloisters decorated with tiles and remarkable paintings depicting the life of the holy founder of the Order, St. Francisco de Asis. In the underground galleries are impressive catacombs whose purpose, according to popular histories, remains an enigma.

Enjoy a delicious lunch at a local restaurant before proceeding to the district of Pueblo Libre to visit the Larco Herrera Museum, a colonial mansion built in the eighteenth century which houses an extensive collection of ceramics from pre-columbian art and textiles worked with many materials and tools used by the ancient Peruvians, as well as gold and silver pieces with semiprecious stones and pieces of erotic art.

After the visit, transfer back to the hotel.

Tour of Awanakancha and the Pisac Markets

9:30 AM

Start Time

Meeting Point Airport

You will start your tour in Sulca Textil, an exhibition center of textiles and South American camelids located at kilometer 23 of the road to Pisac. It is considered a living museum and here you can see Andean camelids, learn about the techniques to take their wool and finally acquire finely spun garments.

You will then visit the Pisac market, consisting of dozens of stalls displaying and selling goods crafted by residents of the area. You can find textiles, carvings, and replicas of ancient Inca pieces. Located 33 kilometers from the city of Cusco, it is a town built as a partridge, also known for hosting one of the most important archaeological sites in the Sacred Valley on the slopes of the hills. It is perhaps the largest complex of platforms in the area. Free time to visit the area on your own. Once you finish the tour, you will be transferred to Sarapampa.

13:00 Arrive at the beautiful Hacienda Sarapampa, where you will enjoy a day full of Peruvian traditions. Upon your arrival, the guide will receive you at the forecourt of the plantation with a welcome drink, followed by a guided tour by the agricultural processes and the corn interpretive center around the property. Then, lunch will be served at the gardens of the Plantation House composed of a 3-course meal of the delicious local gourmet gastronomy.

In the afternoon you will be transferred to your hotel located in the Sacred Valley of the Incas.

Huayllabamba district, Huayoccari, Peru

1:00 PM	11:00 AM	2 Nights
Check In	Check Out	Duration

Inkaterra Hacienda Urubamba is a contemporary hacienda-style hotel in the Sacred Valley of the Incas, in-between Cusco and Machu Picchu. Immersed in the countryside in a gorgeous area, Inkaterra Hacienda Urubamba spans approximately 100 acres surrounded by imposing green mountains.

All rooms in the Casa Hacienda and stand-alone luxury casitas feature breathtaking views of the valley, immersing guests in open space, serenity and relaxing solitude. Architecture and interiors are inspired on the area's cultural history, with colonial furniture, authentic Inca masks and handcrafted woodwork that add to the hacienda's local charm.

An Earth to Table concept is operated with a 10-acre organic plantation where guests are welcome to pick their own produce. Carbon-free crops such as quinoa, Urubamba giant corn, medicinal herbs and a variety of potatoes are farmed with traditional hand tools and oxen, as done centuries ago.

Things to Do in Cusco With One Day

1. Plaza de Armas

With just one day in Cusco, one of the best things to do is visit the Plaza de Armas. This top tourist attraction lies in the heart of Cusco. Home to the Cathedral Basilica and the Church La Compañía de Jesús, the Plaza de Armas is a historic symbol of the mighty Incan Empire. Today the Plaza has a wide variety of restaurants offering both international and traditional Peruvian food. There you can find everything from traditional cuy and alpaca steaks, to pizza, all the way to gourmet burgers and everything in between.

2. San Pedro Market

If you are looking for something special or unique as a gift for someone, then consider walking down to San Pedro Market. Although not too far from the Plaza de Armas, the San Pedro Market is a very different experience. The thick aroma of spices and food fills the air and draws you into the market. Although a trip here can take up a whole afternoon, the time spent exploring the market is well worth the visit. You can find everything from food to alpaca blankets, fresh juices, bags of fruit, sandwiches, as well as loads of trinkets to take as a gift or souvenirs back home.

3. Coricancha, Temple of the Sun

A visit to Coricancha, otherwise known as “sun temple”, will offer you one of the most interesting sights in Cusco. Coricancha was once a lavish Incan temple that was lined with silver and gold. Interestingly, as the Inca never had a written language there is no correct spelling. Accepted spellings include Coricancha, Koricancha, and Quaricancha. When the Spanish came, they ravaged the temple of its riches and destroyed it, building a church on top of its ruins. The stark contrast of the Incan temple and the church foundations draw visitors from all and is one of the best things to do and see with one day in Cusco.

4. The Cusco Planetarium

If you are interested in space and like museums, then stopping by Cusco Planetarium is a great thing to do if you only have one day in Cusco. Astrology played a big role in the lives of the ancient Inca. Not only did they devise a calendar to coincide with solstices, but astrology influenced their ceremonies and even their architecture, examples of this can be seen all over Cusco.

At the planetarium, you'll learn more about the history between astrology and the Inca. In addition, you'll also have one of the most amazing views of the stars thanks to Cusco's high elevation.

5. Cusco Chocolate Museum

Are you a chocolate lover? Come and live a truly chocolate experience at ChocoMuseo! In our chocolate museum you will uncover all the cocoa secrets while you taste the best artisanal chocote made with the best organic Peruvian beans! Furthermore, get ready to make your own chocolate in our Chocolate Workshops or be ready to drink the best of our coffee or chocolate delights in our cafeteria! Please notice we have another 3 locations: - On the same square, opposite corner: the factory, - on plaza de armas on the left of the cathedral, -by the 12 corner stone

6. San Blas

Often called the bohemian or artisan neighborhood, the San Blas district is full of old-world charm. The area is lined with quaint shops and buildings with stunning architecture. The area is only a small walk from the Plaza de Armas, so it's great for spending time in the city if you only have a short time to visit. You'll find small shops and galleries that line the streets. You can also find a number of gifts and souvenirs, and the product quality is slightly higher than those in the Plaza de Armas. Make your way up the hill to San Blas Plaza, where you'll be able to enjoy more delicious food and shopping. A stroll through the neighborhood is definitely one of the best things to do in Cusco with one day.

7. Wild Rover Cusco

If you are looking for a fun night on the town, then look no further than Wild Rover. The popular party spot is located on the hill of Cusco and is known as the place to go for a good time and an incredible view. As one of the best bars in Cusco, the bar is known is to get wild, and a great place to get a buzz going before heading out to one of Cusco's many incredible night clubs.

8. Inca Museum

Museo de Arte Precolombino or, Museum of Pre-Columbian Art, is found in the San Blas District and a great thing to do in Cusco. With one day, you 'll have more than enough time to really explore the many exhibits on display. The extensive collection of artwork encompasses a time period of 1250 BC to 1532 AD. As one of the best collections of its type, it's worth the time to stop and see the stunning exhibits.

3 Nights

Duration

Deep within the heart of the Amazon where the story of Inkaterra first began lays Inkaterra Hacienda Concepción, located between the Tambopata National Reserve and the shores of the Madre de Dios River. 25 private cabanas sitting majestically on stilts and a 5-room casa grande with high ceilings and a rustic thatched roof are peppered around the property.

An astonishing selection of activities is led by local explorer guides, offering first-hand knowledge of the Peruvian Amazon. Excursions include a visit to Lake Sandoval, a water mirror inhabited by Howler monkeys, caimans and giant river otters.

Day 9

New experiences are ahead and after taking a nutritious buffet breakfast, get ready for a long trek through terra firma into the Tambopata National Reserve towards Lake Sandoval. Here you will understand why Madre de Dios is called the biodiversity capital of Peru, while learning about the Reserves conservation efforts and the lakes formation.

Navigate by dugout canoe across this mirror-like oxbow lake that is home to the endangered giant river otter (Pteronura brasiliensis), blue and yellow macaw (Ara ararauna), red howler monkey (Alouatta seniculus), black caiman (Melanosuchus niger), and one of the worlds biggest fresh water scaled fish, the paiche (Arapaima gigas). Back to the lodge for lunch, and later the Inkaterra Canopy walkway Anaconda walk await for you.

Take a 20-minute ride by outboard motorized canoe to the Inkaterra Canopy Walkway Interpretation Center where you will learn about its construction and the conservation projects of ITA-Inkaterra Asociación (NGO). Ascend one of the two 98-foot towers (30 m.) and cross the 7 hanging bridges that connect the treetops at 91 ft. high (28 m.). Enjoy the breathtaking vistas and get the chance to watch white-throated toucans (Ramphastos tucanus), woodpeckers, trogons, squirrel monkeys (Saimiri boliviensis) and the three-toed sloth (Choloepus hoffmanni).

After descending keep on feeling the incredible primary rainforest energy going along the 200-meter wooden bridge over the swamps (aguajales). You will learn about the fauna and flora of this flooded ecosystem.

At night get ready for an adventure at the Rainforest by night excursion, where you will explore the Amazon rainforest that gives way to nocturnal animals who display intriguing behavior patterns, and enhanced senses as adaptation mechanisms. Listen to nocturnal living nature sounds, and penetrate this hidden world. Return to the lodge and enjoy a nice dinner

Amazon Farm Excursion

BOUTIQUE TRAVEL ADVISORS

The sun rises once again and after an early breakfast you will take our native farm excursion where you will be able to learn local techniques of cultivation and taste some of the products during the visit.

Then visit the Botanical garden, discover the immense variety of medicinal plants considered part of the natural pharmacy used by the habitants at the amazon region. Compare the medicinal uses of local medicine with traditional remedies. Getting back to Inkaterra Hacienda Concepcion you will have lunch. Take a rest and get ready for the cocha water excursion.

Enjoy a dugout canoe ride on the Inkaterra Hacienda Concepcion natural pond (cocha). Try native fishing applying the catch and release techniques, as you enjoy the scenery observing hoatzins (Opisthocomus hoazin), a diversity of fly catchers, and gray-necked woodrails (Aramides cajanea). Disembark at the remains of Fitzcarrald steam boat; learn about its history and how it inspired Inkaterra to ask Werner Herzog to film the award-winning Fitzcarraldo, best director at Cannes, 1982.

You will be able to participate in the inland collpa during the evening, where you will see different species and their night routines by observing through our blinds. End up your day with a pleasant dinner
