Welcome to Madrid

Today you will arrive in Madrid

Area Overview

Hemingway said that Madrid was the most Spanish of all cities in Spain. Like, say, New York City, Madrid's population hails from all over the country, which means you can find a flavor here from every region on the Iberian peninsula.

Madrid is a relatively young city. While there has long been a tiny population here, dating back to the Visigoths and then the Romans, Madrid vastly expanded when it became the seat of the monarchy and the capital of Spain in the late 16th century.

Today, the Spanish capital has nearly three and a half million occupants, making it the second largest city in the European Union (after Berlin). All this means, there's plenty to keep even the most hard-to-please traveler amused for days or even weeks here.

The museum scene is top notch. The Prado's permanent collection, for example, is filled with the work of old European masters from the Renaissance and Baroque eras. The Reina Sofia is where you'll find Picasso's most arresting work, "Guernica."

Restaurants here run the gamut—from top-of-the-line avant-garde, re-invented Spanish fare to tavern tapas that will cost you mere pocket change. Each historic center neighborhood has its own aesthetics and vibe. Malasaña's narrow lanes are flanked by fun tapas bars with a youthful vibe. Salamanca is where the posh people live. Lavapiés has a large immigrant population and is home to some great art galleries. La Latina is a good 'hood for foodies.

Welcome to Cordoba

Today you will arrive in Cordoba

Area Overview

This elegant and handsome city in the region of Andalusia in Spain is crammed with historical ambience. The center of town is a mixture of Islamic and Christian architecture. In fact, Cordoba holds the honor of being a city with the most UNESCO World Heritage Sites per capita on the planet: the Mosque of Cordoba, the Medina Azahara, Alcázar de los Reyes Cristianos, and—oddly enough—a festival: during the Patios Festival, which takes place in early May, residents in the historic center open their floral-laden patios to the public.

Cordoba tends to get overshadowed a bit by its Andalusian sibling, Sevilla. But that's all the more reason to come here: you'll share the city with fewer tourists and more locals. And there's a lot to see and do here beyond anything with a UNESCO label attached to it. Once the largest city in Roman Spain, Cordoba is also sprinkled with monuments the Romans left behind. There's also medieval walls to explore and a huge cathedral to stroll around in and marvel at the art and architecture.

The city of Cordoba has two sides: the more touristy historical center and the more modern town where many denizens reside. They're both worth spending time in for different reasons: to get a sense of the city's history and then to see how the locals live.

Welcome to Seville

Today you will arrive in Seville

Area Overview

It's not difficult to feel the Islamic influence while traveling in Spain. The Moors, as they're still sometimes referred to in Spain, occupied this land from 711 to 1492 leaving an indelible stamp on this western Mediterranean nation.

In Seville that stamp feels much more etched into the culture and history of the town than other places in Spain—all the way up to the bell tower of Sevilla's sprawling and impressive Gothic cathedral which was fashioned out of a former mosque turret. The Mudéjar influence, or Muslim-Iberian-style architecture, is everywhere from the shapes of doors and windows on late-Gothic churches and palaces to inscriptions on centuries-old facades.

Sevilla, pronounced “Sev-ee-ya” in the local parlance, is one of the most fascinating cities in Spain. The historic center is fun for wandering and visitors can take periodic breaks by popping into bars for a small plate of food, or tapa, to go with that glass of wine or vermouth.

And then there are places like the Alameda de Hercules, a vast open space near the center of town, dotted with ancient Roman columns, where the town's more bohemian population like to hang out, sipping coffee and beer at the many outdoor cafes and then hitting clubs that line the periphery of the oblong-shaped space.

Despite living among such historical artifacts, the Sevillanos are not a people living in the past. To figure that out, all you have to do is stroll the enormous historic center until you stumble upon “Las Setas,” or “The Mushrooms,” six attached colossal mushroom-looking parasols looming over Plaza la Encarnacion that was completed in 2011. The top deck of the flowing awe-inducing structure, designed by German architect Jürgen Mayer, makes for a great view of the city.

Check in at Hotel Gravina

Welcome to Granada

Today you will arrive in Granada

Area Overview

There's one main reason visitors gravitate to this town in the foothills of the Sierra Nevada Mountains in central Spain: the Alhambra.

One of the great wonders of the world and one of the best preserved monuments of ancient Islamic architecture, this bewitching hilltop complex was first built in the 13th century by Muhammad I Ibn al-Ahmar. After the Reconquista in 1492, in which the Christians drove out the Muslims from Spain, the Alhambra became the royal seat of the legendary monarchs of Ferdinand and Isabella. And, in fact, it was here in that same year in which Christopher Columbus would receive his royal endorsement for his world-changing expedition.

But in addition to this magical palace, Granada is also a university town, which means there's a vivacious and youthful vibe to the city. In and around the historic center of town are narrow, medieval-era streets flanked by lively and fun tapas bars and cafes. The town is also home to a huge Renaissance cathedral and a small handful of historic mosques.

BTA PREPARE FOR YOUR TRIP: TRAVEL REQUIREMENTS

Passports & Visas

Passport Requirements: Please be aware of the passport requirements for your upcoming trip.

- We strongly recommend that you check your passport's validity and the number of blank pages available well in advance of your departure date. If your passport does not meet the requirements, we advise you to renew it as soon as possible to avoid any travel disruptions.
- Checking the expiration date of your passport well in advance allows you ample time to renew it if necessary. Many countries require that your passport be valid for at least six months beyond your planned departure date. Failing to meet this requirement may result in denied entry or even being turned away at the airport.
- To validate your passport's expiration date and to understand the specific entry requirements for your destination country, we recommend visiting the official website of your country's passport agency or consulate. These websites provide accurate and up-to-date information regarding passport validity, visa requirements, and any additional entry regulations specific to each country.
- For travelers from the United States, the official website of the U.S. Department of State (travel.state.gov) offers comprehensive information on passport requirements, including a passport validity checker tool. This tool allows you to enter your destination country and travel dates to determine if your passport meets the necessary validity requirements.
- Additionally, it is essential to familiarize yourself with any visa requirements for your destination country. The same official websites mentioned earlier will provide information on visa requirements and how to obtain them.
- Please note that failure to meet the necessary travel document requirements may result in denied entry or other travel disruptions. We encourage you to thoroughly research and comply with all relevant travel regulations to ensure a smooth and hassle-free journey.
- If you have any questions or need assistance regarding travel document requirements, our team is available to provide guidance and direct you to reliable resources.

Disclaimer: Boutique Travel Advisors (BTA) would like to emphasize that it is the sole responsibility of our clients to ensure they possess valid passports, visas, and have met all other necessary requirements prior to travel. While we are here to provide guidance and support, BTA cannot assume responsibility for verifying or ensuring the validity of our clients' travel documents. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

Cash & Cards

Cash and Card Guidelines for Traveling in Europe

When traveling in Europe, managing finances smoothly is crucial for a hassle-free experience. Here are some guidelines for using cash and cards across the continent:

1. Understanding Currency:

- Euro: The Euro (€) is the most widely used currency in Europe, adopted by 19 of the 27 European Union countries, known as the Eurozone.
- Other Currencies: Countries outside the Eurozone, like Switzerland, the UK, Norway, and others, use their own currencies, such as the Swiss Franc, British Pound, and Norwegian Krone.

2. Using Credit and Debit Cards:

- Wide Acceptance: Credit and debit cards are widely accepted in most European countries, especially in cities and tourist areas. Check to be sure your card offers Foreign Exchange Free use! American Express and Chase cards generally offer this.
- Chip and PIN: Europe uses the chip-and-PIN technology. Ensure your card is enabled for international use and has a chip.
- Inform Your Bank: Before traveling, notify your bank of your travel plans to avoid any blocks on your card due to foreign transactions.

3. Carrying Cash:

- Accessibility: While cards are commonly used, it's advisable to carry some cash, especially for smaller transactions or in rural areas.
- Exchange Rates: Withdraw cash from ATMs for better exchange rates compared to currency exchange booths. Use ATMs affiliated with banks rather than standalone units in tourist areas to avoid higher fees.

4. ATM Use:

- Fees: Be aware of transaction fees for international withdrawals. Check if your bank has partnerships with European banks to reduce these fees.
- Withdrawal Limit: Some ATMs have a daily withdrawal limit. Plan your cash needs accordingly.

5. Safety Tips:

- Keep Receipts: Save receipts for card transactions to verify against your statements.
- Secure Your Wallet: Use a money belt or a secure, zipped bag to keep your cash and cards safe from pickpockets.

- Multiple Cards: Carry more than one card and store them separately to ensure you have access to funds if one is lost or stolen.

6. Mobile Payments:

- Increasing Popularity: Services like Apple Pay, Google Wallet, and Samsung Pay are becoming more common in Europe.
- Setup Before Travel: Ensure your device is set up for mobile payments and check its compatibility in your destination.

Gratuities

Gratuity is customary but never compulsory, it is always dependent on good service being provided and even so you should never feel forced to do in this way.

Boutique Travel Advisors General Terms and Conditions

CONTRACTING PARTIES:

These Terms and Conditions are legally binding between the traveler(s) and Boutique Travel Advisors, LLC., hereinafter referred to as BTA.

ACCEPTANCE OF THESE TERMS:

Terms and Conditions must be accepted to begin the itinerary design process.

PASSPORT & VISAS:

Passport holders are responsible for obtaining the required documentation applicable for entry. Passports must be valid for at least six (6) months after completion of your journey and should also have sufficient blank pages for visas and immigration stamps. BTA cannot be held responsible should you be denied entry to a country due to non-compliance with these requirements. Should you require specific information ahead of travel, please consult the travel advice produced by the government of your home jurisdiction and that of the government that issued your passport and/or visa.

PLANNING FEES:

BTA is a service-based travel advisory firm. Our planning and management fees are collected before beginning the design process. Planning and management fees are non-refundable and vary depending on the complexity of the trip. In addition, fees may increase if the scope of services changes, as mutually agreed upon between parties.

ITINERARY:

Accommodation and arranged sightseeing are subject to change at any time due to unforeseen circumstances or circumstances beyond BTA's control. Every effort will be made to operate tours and activities as planned, but alterations may occur after the final itinerary has been issued.

BTA reserves the right to withdraw a tour or any part of it, to make such alterations to the itinerary or the tour inclusions as it deems necessary or desirable, and to pass on to tour members any expenditures or losses caused by delays or events beyond its control. In case of any appreciable variation in the tour price due to these circumstances, BTA reserves the right to adjust the tour costs.

TAXES AND GRATUITIES:

Certain airline fees (such as baggage costs) and hotel taxes imposed by city and state governments are typically not included in the quotation unless specified. Likewise, gratuities for guides, drivers, porters, and hotel and cruise staff are generally not included and are at the traveler's discretion. Additional city taxes may be imposed in specific destinations and must be paid on the spot.

EXCLUSIONS:

The cost of obtaining vaccinations, passports, visas, excess baggage charges, food and beverages (except where specified), laundry services, telephone calls, and personal expenditures, unless expressly included in writing, are not included.

Certain services are subject to additional fees and will be charged to your card on file upon providing such service:

- * Airline research fees (inclusive of ticketing fee) - $50-$75/person for travel within the continental US
- * Airline research fees (inclusive of ticketing fee) - $100-$150/person for Hawaii, Alaska, and international destinations
- * Restaurant reservations start at $100 per week
- * A la carte tours and events - $50/tour
- * A la carte rail tickets - $30/per person
- * Spa reservations - $30/per reservation

Apartments and villa rentals:

- * Finder's fee for apartment and villa rentals: Up to 15% of net rental rate.
- * Percentage will be determined based on net versus commissionable rate offered by the property manager.

CHANGES AND CANCELLATIONS

- * Changes to the itinerary made post final payment are subject to $100-$150 fee per occurrence
- * BTA reserves the right to charge a service fee of up to 10% of the booking costs if trip is cancelled by you after the first deposit. BTA encourages you to submit cancellation fees as part of claim in the event that you have trip insurance and deem your cancellation to be for a covered reason.

Note: Other supplier cancellation terms & conditions may apply and are the traveler's sole responsibility.

- * Cancellation terms & conditions assed by suppliers are specific to each booking. Your travel may not be refundable and/or subject to cancellation or rebooking fees.

- * While we can not guarantee reimbursement, change and cancellation fees should be submitted with any trip insurance claim made due to cancellation for a covered reason.

AFTER-HOURS ASSISTANCE AND SERVICES:

BTA advisors are available Monday- Friday during standard business hours on MST and an appointment basis.

Travel itineraries booked with destination management companies and wholesalers may include complimentary after-hours customer support, in-destination emergency contacts, and concierge service lines.

After-hours support with a BTA advisor during travel is subject to $100/hour, billed in 1-hour increments. The fee will be charged at the time of service.

SPECIAL REQUESTS:

Specific requests, including connecting rooms, bedding configurations, room assignments, and meal preferences, should be advised at the time of booking. While we make an effort to secure special requests, they cannot be guaranteed.

PRICES & ARRANGEMENTS

The price for your custom itinerary includes planning, handling, and operational charges and is quoted based on the current exchange rates and tariffs.

Entrance fees for scheduled sightseeing tours are included in this price when specified.

This price is subject to revision in line with significant changes in foreign currency, tariff rates, taxes etc. Quote and proposals are subject to change & availability until confirmed.

DESCRIPTIONS AND IMAGERY

Photographs, videos, imagery, and descriptions used by BTA are intended to present an example of the types of sights, experiences, and scenery you may encounter in your travel destination. However, due to circumstances beyond our control, it is foreseeable that some destinations will change in appearance.

BTA cannot guarantee sightings of animals in the wild or marine life in its natural habitat. We are also not responsible for inclement or undesirable weather.

CONFIRMATION OF SERVICES

A non-refundable itinerary design fee is required to begin the planning process. Typically, a non-refundable deposit is required at the time of booking to secure custom travel components.

The deposit amount will be specified at the time of booking and varies depending on the supplier's Terms and Conditions.

The client understands that BTA's Terms and Conditions may vary from those of cruise lines, land operators, airlines, hotels, and other travel companies involved in your trip. All applicable Terms and Conditions shall be enforced.

PAYMENT METHOD:

Payments may be made by the following methods:

- Credit card
- Bank transfer

Travelers are liable for all bank and related transaction charges. Some suppliers may charge additional credit card processing fees. These fees are strictly the responsibility of the traveler.

CREDIT CARD MERCHANT:

We also strongly recommend that you use a credit card for your purchase, so that you can exercise your rights under the Fair Credit Billing Act if you do not receive the services you purchased. However, if we are the credit card merchant, our role is to facilitate the sale, collect funds on your behalf, and remit those funds to the Suppliers. If the Suppliers do not provide the services, your only recourse would be against the Suppliers, and you agree not to initiate a chargeback against us.

FLIGHT PREPARATION:

BTA recommends that you check your flight for any changes at least 48 hours before departure and check in before arrival at the airport when possible. We recommend that you arrive at the airport 3 hours before traveling internationally and at least 2 hours before flying domestically. BTA is not liable for any travel interruption or disruption.

RISKS OF TRAVEL AND TRAVEL RELEASE:

BTA assumes no responsibility for and shall not be liable for the acts or omissions on the part of any other party not under our control or any acts of God, unsafe conditions, terrorism, health hazards including pandemics, illness, weather hazards, or the suitability for a disabled person of any portion of any trip. We have no special knowledge of dangers during travel or at destinations.

For information related to such hazards, we recommend you visit the State Department travel website at www.travel.state.gov, click on "Find International Travel Information," then click on "Country Information," and fill in the name of the destination country.

For medical and health information, we recommend you visit the Centers for Disease Control website at www.cdc.gov/travel, then click on "Destinations" and scroll to the destination country's name. It is your personal decision to travel, and you are doing so with full knowledge of current travel recommendations and travel restrictions regarding the risks of COVID-19 or any other pandemic.

FORCE MAJEURE:

Force majeure means unusual and unforeseeable circumstances beyond BTA's control or the control of our suppliers, the consequence of which neither BTA nor its suppliers could avoid even with all due care, including, but not limited to, war, threat of war, riot, civil strife, terrorist activity (actual or threatened), industrial dispute, unavoidable technical problems with transport, machinery or equipment, power failure, changes imposed by rescheduling or cancellation of flights by an airline, natural or nuclear disaster, fire, flood, drought, adverse weather conditions, epidemics or outbreaks of illness and level of water in rivers.

In the event of a cancellation or material alteration to the trip as a result of the circumstances as described in this clause, BTA may, in their sole and absolute discretion: a) offer the traveler (s) alternative travel arrangements or products of comparable standard as may be appropriate in the circumstances; or b) if BTA does not offer alternative travel arrangements or products, BTA will make every effort to obtain a prompt proportional refund of monies paid by the traveler to the suppliers.

YOU HEREBY EXPRESSLY ASSUME ALL OF THESE RISKS AND DANGERS, AND YOU HEREBY EXPRESSLY AGREE TO RELEASE FOREVER, DISCHARGE, AND HOLD US, AND OUR AGENTS, EMPLOYEES, OFFICERS, DIRECTORS, ASSOCIATES, AFFILIATED COMPANIES, GUIDES, GROUP LEADERS, AND SUBCONTRACTORS HARMLESS AGAINST ANY AND ALL LIABILITY, ACTIONS, CAUSES OF ACTIONS, SUITS, CLAIMS, AND DEMANDS OF ANY AND EVERY KIND AND NATURE WHATSOEVER WHICH YOU NOW HAVE OR WHICH MAY HEREAFTER ARISE OUT OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH THESE RISKS AND DANGERS.

CLAIMS DEADLINE AND EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION:

You agree to present any claims against us within 30 days after your travels end and to file suit within one year of the incident, and you acknowledge that this expressly limits the applicable statute of limitations to one year. Any unresolved disputes arising out of or in connection with our services shall be finally settled under the Rules of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce by one or more arbitrators appointed in accordance with the said Rules.
