TIPPING INFORMATION

Gratuities in Italy, while extremely welcome and appreciated, are not as much ‘expected’ as they are in other countries and are totally optional.

If you are happy with the service you have enjoyed and would like to show your gratitude to the people who made it a very special experience for you here below you can find the amounts we recommend for Tour Guides, Drivers and other special services:

Tour Guide Half Day Euro 20.00

Tour Guide Full Day Euro 40,00

Transfer (Driver) Euro 15,00

Driver Half Day Euro 20.00

Driver Full Day Euro 40.00

Housekeeping staff 2 Euro/day

Hotel Staff, such as porters, should be tipped about 50 cents per bag for taking your bags to/from your room.

The above amounts are to be considered per service and not per person. Fiscal laws in Italy are extremely tough on this matter and this is the reason why these amounts cannot be included in the service costs and have to be paid in cash directly to the suppliers.

If you would like to ‘tip like a local’ at bars and restaurants then we suggest just leaving the change ie if your meal costs Euro 56 then just leave Euro 4; if the meal costs Euro 92 then just leave the Euro 8 change.

The Eye stands a whopping 135 metres high on the South Bank between Waterloo and Westminster Bridges, right opposite Big Ben and the Houses of Parliament and provides stunning views over central London and beyond. Visitors are treated to a gently paced half-hour ride in space age capsules holding 25 people each, hopping on and off as the wheel moves. An increasingly popular idea is to visit the Eye at night time when the view is perhaps at its most magical.

We will provide you with a fast-track ticket voucher which you will need to exchange upon arrival.

Panoramic Tour of London (En-route)

We will begin our Panoramic Tour of London at The Houses of Parliament, also known as the Palace of Westminster and home of the British government with two debating chambers within a Gothic building, containing 1100 rooms and two miles of corridors! Big Ben, named after the 13 12 ton Bell in the Clock Tower. Big Ben is one of London's best-known landmarks, and looks most spectacular at night when the clock faces are illuminated. You even know when parliament is in session, because light shines above the clock face.

Piccadilly Circus features the statue of Eros, at the heart of the West End, where London's famous theaters offer many great shows. Trafalgar Square commemorates Nelson's victory over the French; a visit to the capital would be incomplete without going to marvel at Nelson's Column and the four giant lions at its base, or to admire the lovely splashing fountains. Other highlights encountered in the West End would be Buckingham Palace the London residence of the Monarch since Queen Victoria. Downing Street, named after the original builder (Harvard graduate), and official residence of the Prime Minister. (All External Viewings)

Westminster Abbey

Westminster Abbey is a stunning Gothic church which intertwines with the very fabric of English history. It is the scene of every Royal Coronation since 1066, and it is where many of the Kings and Queens of England are buried. It also contains memorials to hundreds of writers, poets and statesmen, and is still a working church where many important national services take place. A tour with my private guide will bring this awesome building to life. Almost 2 Billion people tuned in to watch the Royal Wedding of Prince William and Catherine Middleton on the 29th April 2011. On Sundays this will be an external tour as the Abbey is closed for worship.

Changing the Guard

A spectacular ceremony occurring most days, involving the marching soldiers and imposing mounted guards. The regular hand-over of guards in the forecourt of Buckingham Palace draws thousands of visitors to watch the soldiers and listen to the music. Known as Changing the Guard or Guard Mounting, the process involves a new guard exchanging duty with the old guard. The soldiers are drawn from one of the five regiments of Foot Guards in the British Army: the Scots Guards, the Irish Guards, the Welsh Guards, the Grenadier Guards and the Coldstream Guards. The handover is accompanied by a Guards band. The music played ranges from traditional military marches to songs from shows and even familiar pop songs.

If The Changing the Guard is not taking place at Buckingham Palace, we will visit

Changing the Guard at Horseguards Parade.

Horse Guards is named after the troops who have mounted the Queen's Life Guard on this spot since the Restoration of King Charles II in 1660 and remains the official entrance to St James's and Buckingham Palace. This is why The Queen's Life Guard is still mounted here. Apart from members of the Royal Family or cavalrymen on duty, everyone needs the Sovereign's permission in the form of an Ivory Pass to either drive or ride through Horse Guards. The Guard Changing Ceremony takes place each weekday at 11 o'clock and at 10 o'clock on Sundays. The mounted sentries (who change every hour) are on duty each day from 10am until 4pm, at which time there is a dismounted parade of the Guard.

HM The Tower of London, London's Castle, Royal Palace and former prison

On a visit to the Tower, gaze at the stunning Crown Jewels. Encounter the guardians, the Tudor-costumed Yeoman Warders, that safeguard the Jewel House at all times. At the heart of the Crown Jewels display are the ceremonial and symbolic objects associated with the Coronations of English Kings and Queens. They include the Crowns of Sovereigns, Consorts and Princes of Wales, both past and present, scepters, orbs, rings, swords, spurs, bracelets and robes, all of which have a specific part to play in the ritual of the English Coronation Service.

The Crown Jewels, part of the Royal Collection and still regularly used by The Queen, include some of the most extraordinary diamonds in the world. The uncut Cullinan diamond, weighing 3,106 carats is the largest diamond ever found. It was given to Edward VII by the Transvaal Government as a 66th birthday present! The two largest diamonds cut from this gigantic gem can be seen at the Tower today. One is now mounted at the top of the Sovereign's Scepter and the other in the Imperial State Crown.

The Tower of London is said to have more ghosts than visitors!! Many dreadful deeds have been carried out within its sinister walls including torture and executions. Anne Boleyn the second wife of King Henry VIII was executed for treason here, and her ghost has been seen in the Chapel Royal in the White Tower in a stately procession of Knights and Ladies, in front of who walks an elegant lady her face averted. The ghost of King Henry VI haunts the room in which he was stabbed to death, at midnight on the anniversary of his death, 21 May 1471. The history of England is entwined with the Tower. Seriously old and mysterious tales abound of those who have been "guests". Some stayed for a long time, others never made it out alive. Allow your personal guide to explain much more! Also view Tower Bridge, a spectacular bridge that is raised for tall ships to pass.

Continue your Panoramic Tour of London

After your visit to the Tower of London drive across famous Tower Bridge and into the Borough of Southwark famous for its connections to Charles Dickens and many other well-known artists. Watch out for Southwark Cathedral one of London's most stunning Gothic churches. The Cathedral is surrounded by Borough Market, which has been used as a filming location for films including Bridget Jones, Harry Potter and Doctor Who. Also gaze at the enormous height of London's newest skyscraper the Shard of Glass. Designed by Master Architect Renzo Piano and at a height of 1,016ft(310m) it is the tallest building in Western Europe. Continue your journey through London's creative quarter which also houses Tate Modern and Shakespeare's Globe Theatre.

From the rise of Julius Caesar to the fall of the Roman Empire, Rome became the center of its modern world. Join our expert local guide to explore the highlights of Imperial Rome on foot and by private vehicle...

Visit the best-loved sights of Rome in our highlights tour that perfectly combines walking with relaxed sightseeing in the comfort of a luxury vehicle. Follow in the footsteps of Cicero and Caesar in the valley of the Forum Romanum , as your guide recounts myths and legends that make the ruins come alive like the Basilica of Constantine with its imposing arches. We continue down the Via Sacra to the triumphal Arch of Titus and make our way to the Colosseum.

After admiring its exterior and exploring its interior, we'll walk the Palatine Hill and visit the ruins of the imperial palaces and the small museum. The tour continues to the Basilica of St. Peter in Chains to see the relics and Michelangelo's Moses, before venturing to the Vittoriano monument, sometimes disrespectfully referred to as the "Wedding Cake".

The tour ends with a panoramic drive past Circus Maximus, where daring Romans competed in fast-paced chariot races, and the two closest of the seven Hills of Rome, Aventino and Palatino.

Rome's Via Appia Tour

TBD

Start Time

Meet your English speaking guide and driver after lunch, in the place and at the time agreed during the morning experience.

Built over 2,000 years ago, Rome's Via Appia is a feat of engineering still unparalleled in the modern world. Join your expert local guide to follow in the foot steps of Julius Caesar and St.Peter along this storied street...The Via Appia was built as Rome's "Gateway to the East" in 312 BC using remarkably advanced engineering so remarkable, in fact, that it remains more or less intact after more than 2,000 years!

Join your expert guide and driver for the thrilling experience of taking the same road as Julius Caesar and the Apostle Peter, and visiting important Roman and Christian sites along the way. Many of the area's treasures are hidden underground: acres of burial sites flank the Appian Way, as tradition did not allow the dead to remain within the city limits. Slaves and Roman citizens were buried in highly organized and ornately decorated underground chambers called columbaria, while Christians ended up in rambling, decidedly less posh galleries called catacombs.

Those who had the means built elaborate mausoleums to secure their legacy for posterity, such as the tombs of Cecilia Metella and Romulus. And no trip to the Appian Way would be complete without remembering the Apostle Peter, who is said to have fled Rome along these very stones. We will visit the Church of Domine Quo Vadis ("Where are you going, Lord?"), which is said to have been built on the spot where Jesus appeared to Peter and convinced him to return to Rome and take his martyrdom like a man. Quo Vadis indeed!

This early morning's Vatican experience takes you to the must-see sights of the world's smallest country. Your educational and entertaining tour will then show you see the city-state's most beloved masterpieces and little-known treasures, all the while sharing tales of intrigue, tragedy and power from the Holy See's turbulent history.

Originally built as papal palaces for the Renaissance pontiffs, the Vatican Museums have an unparalleled collection of classical statuary, ancient treasure like Egyptian mummies and Etruscan bronzes, a hallway lined with 16th-century topographical maps of Italy and paintings by Old Masters from Giotto and da Vinci to Titian and Raphael. Continue with a wander through the Sistine Chapel, gazing up at Michelangelo's masterful ceiling, and a stroll down the cavernous nave of St. Peter's Basilica with its majestic dome and bronze canopy.
